

Varsity Club Scholarship Information

- Each year the Athletic Department designates up to two scholarships to graduating seniors who have demonstrated excellence in athletics, scholarship, leadership and community service. To be eligible, the student/athlete must plan to continue their education at a public/private college or vocational school. Awards are $200 each. The application deadline is Friday, February 24, 2023.

What are the scholarship guidelines?

- Varsity Letter winner, verified by the Athletic Department.
- Minimum 3.0 cumulative grade point average.
- Extra curricular activities, community service, and/or work experience.
- Applicants must have applied and plan to attend a public or private college or vocational school in the coming fall. All scholarship payments are made payable to the student/parent.
- You do not have to participate in an organized sport or activity in college to be eligible for this scholarship.
- We commend your initiative to undertake the scholarship process. Senior year is a busy time and we appreciate your accomplishments and efforts.
