3.2 Negotiated Agreement Memorandum of Understanding:

The SESEA representative Mr. Todd Baird and Mr. Stumpf have been in talks whether a MOU was needed. At this point in time, no concerns have been identified.

Communications:

4.1 Superintendents Report

Mr. Stumpf gave an update on Drivers Ed for the summer. No decisions regarding Drivers Ed will be made until May. With the help of a sub contractor and John Kuhn, our playground project is ahead of schedule. Surplus playground equipment has been offered to community parks in our district. One piece will be placed in Gypsum. The others have not been spoken for. The Board of Education has decided to offer them to any USD 306 district patron or local business if they remove the pieces themselves. Lunches provided to our community children continues to increase with over 200 meals served daily.

4.2 Principals Report

Principals had nothing more to report.

5.1 No Executive Session was needed

6.1 A motion was made by Justin Knopf and seconded by Charisse Nurnberg to approve the hiring of Patrick Schroeder as 7th grade ELA & Tech Lab Teacher.
