Communications:

Superintendents Report

Mr. Stumpf shared the district is feeding between 150-160 kids every day. We currently have locations set up in Gypsum and Assaria but will be adding Kipp & Mentor starting Monday. The kitchen staff have done a good job adjusting. The building is mostly shut down at this time. There is a thermometer and hand sanitizing station at the building everyone must utilize before entering. The parking lot construction repairs have begun and will continue throughout the summer. The playground removal can begin anytime with the playground shut down. Within the next few weeks, we are working to finalize construction from last summer's projects.
