2. Public Comment

Procedural: 2.1 Public Comment

Stuart Wirth, Union President, told the board that the staff and union had no confidence in the Board of Education to make the decision on the new Superintendent.

Susan Mitchell, spoke on behalf of the PTO, and supported the Union and asked that the board not rush into making the decision about the Superintendent.

Donna Posta, also commented on the Superintendent Search.

Aoife Geoghegan, also commented on Superintendent Search.

3. Presentation

Discussion, Presentation: 3.1 Child Nutrition Program

Alyssa Hasbrouck gave a presentation on the Child Nutrition Program. A significant financial loss in the school lunch fund lead to the hiring of a consultant and a loan from the general fund to the school lunch fund. The district was able to claim reimbursement revenue and will be offering universal free breakfast and lunch for the summer and the upcoming school year. Effort to increase operational efficiencies will continue.
