Athletic Code

Veazie Community School student-athletes need to read and agree to the following guidelines. If there is something here you can not agree to, it must be resolved before you may participate.

1. I understand that it is a privilege to represent the Veazie Community School.
2. I will be kind, courteous, respectful, and practice good sportsmanship.
3. I understand that commitment to practices and games is required.
4. I understand that use of the locker room is a privilege.
5. I will be alcohol, drug, and tobacco free.
6. I understand that my behavior in class will impact my opportunity to participate.
7. I understand that I am responsible for my school work.

If a student-athlete conducts his or herself in a way contrary to the Veazie Community School Athletic Code there will be a consequence(s) not limited to the following:

1. Conference with athlete/parents/coach.
2. No practice or game that day (or two).
3. No practice and no games for a week (or two).
4. Review with athlete/parents/principal/coach for possible removal from the team.
5. There may also be in-school consequences.

Any In-School/Out of School Suspension may include the following:

1. No practice and no games for a week.
2. Review with athlete/parents/principal/coach for possible removal from the team.
