Electives Choices

Alternative to PPT: Amber Thomas

Take a look at different methods for students to publish student work besides the traditional PowerPoint presentation.

Fountas & Pinnell Guided Reading Resources: Mary Kraus, Kristy Karmenzind, and Molly Dickinson

There are new Fountas & Pinnell resources in your Learning Center to help you plan and implement guided reading with small groups. This session will give you the opportunity to explore the books and the lesson plan format. If you haven't had the chance to check these out or if you want to look closer to discuss ideas with others, this session is for you!

Wilson and Washington Intermediate School Improvement Agenda

Harmony in the Classroom: Katie Morrison

Looking at the “why” behind behaviors and also offering some tools for students who are not there...yet!

Patterns of Power Introduction: Noelle Weghorst

Grammar instruction - necessary and frustrating at the same time! Join us to learn how Noelle Weghorst has used the book Patterns of Power: Inviting Young Writers into the Conventions of Language by Jeff Anderson to incorporate a 10-minute grammar study into her instruction. She will share her successes and challenges as she and her students learn from these succinct lessons. One lucky participant will walk away with their own copy of Patterns of Power!

Fact Frenzy: Kelly Bond

Learn about a new instructional strategy to increase student engagement while learning facts.

D 108 Technology: Angie Arnold

Explore different technology options to enhance your lesson, unit, etc and increase student engagement in the classroom.
