

REGIONAL SCHOOL UNIT 50 - TITLE I PARENT INVOLVEMENT COMPACT

(Exhibit 1 (sample))

This district-level policy has been developed jointly with (or: in cooperation with)¹ the parents (including guardians) of students participating in the school unit's Title I programs. It provides an understanding of the shared responsibility of the school system and parents in improving students' academic achievement and school performance. The Superintendent/designee will be responsible for distributing this policy to parents/guardians of students participating in the school unit's Title I programs.

Because parent involvement is so important to a student's success in school, the Board encourages regular participation by parents in all aspects of the school unit's Title I programs.

RSU 50 provides opportunities for parent involvement that are aligned with the requirements of Title I programs set forth in law as follows.

- A. The school unit involves parents in the joint development of the school system's plan to help disadvantaged students meet challenging achievement and academic standards and in the process of school review and improvement by:
 - 1. Establishing a district-level Parent Advisory Committee with parent representatives from each building;
 - 2. Establishing effective and ongoing two-way communications between the school unit, staff, and parents;
 - 3. Developing a district-wide newsletter to communicate with parents about the school unit's Title I plan and to seek their input and participation; and
 - 4. Training staff to work more effectively with families with diverse cultural backgrounds and/or barriers such as illiteracy or limited English proficiency.

- B. The school unit provides the coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist participating schools in planning and implementing effective parent involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance by:
1. Providing information to parents about the system and various instruments that will be developed or used to monitor student progress;
 2. Providing district-level workshops to assist individual schools in planning and implementing improvement activities;
 3. Holding training sessions for Parent Advisory Committee members so that there may be more effective liaisons between parents and schools; and
 4. Seeking input from parents in developing workshops that will help them become more effective partners with the schools in encouraging academic achievement.
- C. The school unit builds the capacity of schools and parents for strong parental involvement by:
1. Developing and disseminating a master calendar of district-wide meetings to discuss Title I issues, including evaluation of and suggestions for the district-level Title I policy;
 2. Engaging school Parent-Teacher Organizations (PTOs) to seek out and involve parents/guardians through their communications and informational meetings;
 3. Promoting cooperation between the school unit and other agencies or school/community groups to furnish learning opportunities, increase awareness of support services, and disseminate information regarding parenting skills and child/adolescent development; and
 4. Provide ongoing communication about opportunities to serve on the Parental Advisory Committee, volunteer in the schools, and learn how to work more effectively with their children to extend and reinforce learning and foster achievement.

- D. The school unit coordinates and integrates parent involvement strategies for Title I programs with those of other programs (such as Head Start, Reading First, Early Reading First, Even Start, Parents as Teachers, Home Instruction Program for Preschool Youngsters, and State-run preschool programs) by:
1. Involving school system and building representatives from other programs to assist in identifying specific population needs; and
 2. Sharing data between programs to assist in developing new initiatives to improve student academic achievement and school improvement.
- E. The school unit conducts, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parental involvement policy in improving the academic quality of the schools served under Title I, including identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in activities authorized by this section (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background), using the findings of such evaluation to design strategies for more effective parent involvement, and revising, if necessary, the parent involvement policies described in this section by:
1. Evaluating the content and effectiveness of the parent involvement policy through a variety of means such as surveys, workshops, focus groups, and informal meetings involving district and school administrators, teachers, and parents;
 2. Identifying and overcoming barriers to effective evaluation and input, e.g., language support for parents who do not speak English or have limited English proficiency, scheduling multiple meetings at various times of day or night, meeting in places accessible by public transportation, or providing a means of transportation; and
 3. Identifying potential policy changes and program improvements.

- F. The school unit involves parents in the activities of the schools served under Title I by:
1. Keeping parents informed of the objectives of the school unit's Title I programs;
 2. Providing communication and calendar information to alert parents of meetings or events and encouraging their participation;
 3. Providing central coordination for district, school, and PTO meetings and other events to create a master calendar to facilitate parent participation; and
 4. Promoting opportunities for parents as volunteers in the classroom and in school programs.
