

ADA Title II Evaluation and Transition Plans (Full Course) Quiz Answer Key

- | | |
|--|----------|
| 1. Under the law, an ADA coordinator must be designated if you have more than 50 employees at the district or school level. | 1. True |
| 2. A self-evaluation is usually a one-time process. | 2. False |
| 3. The transition plan describes district programs and how they will be made accessible to people with disabilities. | 2. False |
| 4. If you have a building that was built after 1991, compliant areas under those standards won't have to be improved to the current standards. | 1. True |
| 5. Regulations require that schools provide an opportunity for people with disabilities and other interested individuals and organizations to review and comment on the transition plan and self-evaluation. | 1. True |
| 6. Title II of the ADA requires schools and other public entities to make all of the facilities accessible to people with disabilities. | 2. False |
| 7. If a program can be made accessible by some method other than providing architectural access, such as moving the program to another accessible location, providing architectural access isn't required. | 1. True |