Appeal of Protest Decision to State Procurement Policy Board—

A party to a protest may appeal the protest decision to the Procurement Policy Board by filing a written notice of appeal with the chair of the Procurement Policy Board including the person's address and email address and a copy of the written decision and by complying with the security requirement discussed below. The appeal must be filed either within seven days after the written decision on the protest is personally served on the party or the party's representative or emailed or mailed to the address or email address provided by the party, or within 30 days of a written request for a final written decision (or any longer period which the parties agreed to), if a final written decision has not been issued in that time period.

No appeal of a protest decision may be filed unless a decision has been issued or the 30-day period (or longer agreed-upon period) has expired without issuance of a written decision.

A security deposit or bond is forfeited to the District's general fund if the person providing it fails to ultimately prevail on appeal and the procurement appeals panel finds that the protest or appeal is frivolous or that its primary purpose is to harass or cause a delay.
