Student Custody Care

Noble Schools does everything we can to protect every student and we are hopeful that by completing this document our records will reflect the best information and wishes for your family. If situational changes are made, please update this document as soon as possible by completing a new form and returning it to your child's school site.

On your child's most recent enrollment form, you indicated that:

- A. _____ Parents are married.
- B. _____ Parents were never married.
- C. _____ Parents are not married to each other. A copy of current court documents indicating the name of the custodial parent has been provided to the school.
- D. _____ Legal documents are not available. I understand the school will have to release my child to either parent, on request, without such documents.
- E. _____ The student is living with a person other than a parent. Paperwork in the form of a court document or DHS custody orders indicating that this is a legal arrangement, has been provided to the school.
- F. _____ I prefer not to provide the school with a copy of legal documents. I understand the school will have to release my child to either parent, on request, without such documents.
