

LINCOLN COUNTY FAMILY RESOURCE AND YOUTH SERVICE CENTERS PRESENT A COMMUNITY HEALTH RESOURCE FAIR

Tuesday, October 25th at 5-7 p.m. in the Lincoln County High School Auditorium.

"Hiding in plain sight". That's what Kentucky State Police say teens are doing with drugs and alcohol, so the Lincoln County Schools FRYSC is helping parents and those who work with children be more aware. Kentucky State Trooper Justin Kearney will present: "Hiding in Plain Sight". This assembly is for all of Lincoln County Guardians and Staff. Adults Only! No students (or younger siblings) will be permitted in the assembly or mobile unit. 21st Century will be providing activities in the library for students and younger siblings.

Community Resources available to address
questions about drug treatment, and mental health resources within our community

The Kentucky State Police Substance Education Trailor will be set up in the parking lot of Lincoln County High School, near the auditorium. This innovative exhibit is designed to raise awareness on many levels – addiction, detection, recognition, treatment and, we hope, prevention. Combating the drug epidemic is often not an easy task for many parents who are unfamiliar with the latest trends and lingo that can help them recognize the signs of drug use and abuse. This display acts as a useful educational resource to start this vital two-way communication process between young people and adults.

If you want to set up an information table, please let one of the LC FRYSC staff know.

Narcan will be available, while supplies last.
