About This Year's BGHS Alumni Banquet Speaker:

Sean Morris is a proud member of the Bowling Green High School Class of 1992 and lifelong Bowling Green resident.

After graduating from BGHS, Morris attended Southeast Missouri State University and Hannibal-LaGrange University. Morris received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration.

Morris was very active in baseball for a brief time before dropping back to focus on his family and business.

Morris has been married to his wife, Tracy, for 26 years and they have three children, all of whom have attended or currently attend BGHS.

Morris currently serves as the President of ALL-WAY, Inc., which is headquartered in Bowling Green. The company also operates a full production facility in Springfield, Mo., as well as warehousing additional product and material in St. Louis, Kansas City, Springfield, Ill., and Granite City, Ill. The company primarily serves U.S. Department of Defense agencies, federal and state government agencies, heavy construction and heavy industrial industries to name a few.

Morris has been involved with several local boards and committees, serving as the President of some in the past. Morris has also served on various advisory committees primarily related to the industry in which ALL-WAY is involved.

While Morris has a passion for business, his favorite past times are related to spending time with his family, traveling and any time in the great outdoors.
