

Silence, educators! My name is Ana Samaniego. I am the Superintendent from Planet DUSD and I'd like to welcome you to "Teaching Back to the Future!"

If my calculations are correct, when we hit August 5th, you're all going to see some serious enthusiasm and anticipation! I hope you're all ready to take our DUSD students back into the future!

As we prepare for another school year, I want you to imagine the endless possibilities for our students and yourselves. Imagine what it will be like, imagine what your eyes will see, imagine the minds you will brighten, and imagine the lives you will change. I can only imagine the great future ahead! Let's get back to teaching to the future, but let's not get back to normal, let's get back to doing things better! As Doc Emmett Brown said, "If you put your mind to it, you can accomplish anything"!
