

Kindergarten "Jump Start" @ Harrah!

Welcome to the 2021 Kindergarten "Jump Start" program! The transition to school is a giant step in life.. It's natural to have some anxiety. That's why, even before school officially starts, we want to begin to connect with your family. Our teachers are ready to embark on this educational journey with your child in a safe, inclusive, and engaging learning environment. The program offers students meaningful experiences while promoting a lifelong love for learning. Our goal is for new MASD kindergartners to feel safe, supported and ready to learn.

What is Jump Start?

- Jump Start is a 2-week orientation for Harrah Kindergartners and their families to Harrah Elementary.
- Children meet their classmates and teachers and get to know the school.
- Children "practice" kindergarten in classes taught by kindergarten teachers.
- Students build social skills, confidence, and excitement about school.
- Children will listen to stories, learn about classroom expectations, and practice school routines like eating in the cafeteria and recess.
- Our Kindergarten teachers are all bilingual in Spanish and English. bilingual educational assistants. Breakfast and Lunch will be provided.
