

Should I Come To School Today?

January 7, 2022

MY CHILD IS EXPERIENCING ONE OF THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS*

- Fever (100.4°F or higher)
- Shortness of breath
- Feverish feel and/or chills
- New or worsening cough
- Unexplained body aches
- Unusual/extreme fatigue
- Unexplained nausea, vomiting, or diarrhea
- New loss of sense of taste or smell
- New onset of long-lasting or severe headaches
- Sore throat or runny nose not due to seasonal allergies or other known causes

Was a negative COVID PCR test obtained?

OR

Is your child vaccinated?

OR

Has a doctor provided an alternative diagnosis for the symptoms?

YES

NO

RETURN TO SCHOOL

When symptoms have improved or resolved.
(CDC recommends vaccinated/symptomatic individuals PCR test prior to return to school)

STAY HOME

RETURN TO SCHOOL

- If you receive a negative COVID PCR test 48+ hours after the onset of symptoms and symptoms have resolved. -OR-
- After staying home for 5 days after the onset of symptoms, are symptom-free & fever-free for 24 hours w/out fever reducing meds.
- After symptoms subside and are fever-free for 24 hours if not symptom-free after 5 days.

Close Contact: An unvaccinated individual who was w/in 6' of an infected person for 15+ cumulative daily minutes while unmasked, or w/in 3' for 15+ minutes while both are masked.

MY CHILD WAS A CLOSE CONTACT TO A COVID POSITIVE INDIVIDUAL

- The close contact period begins forty-eight hours before the onset of symptoms or forty-eight hours before a positive sample was obtained for an asymptomatic person

Has your child been vaccinated w/in the past 5 months, or received a booster shot, or been vaccinated but is not yet booster eligible due to age?

YES

NO

Is your child experiencing potential COVID-related symptoms?*

YES

NO

TEST-to-STAY

(not an option for Household Close Contact)

Remain in school & receive a negative SHIELD test result on days 1, 3, 5 & 7

OR

STAY HOME

RETURN TO SCHOOL

- Option 1: Remain home for 10 days.
- Option 2: Remain home for 5 days after close contact and remain symptom-free.*

*Must remain 6 feet from others while unmasked at lunch until the 10th day following onset of symptoms/close contact

MY CHILD TESTED POSITIVE FOR COVID-19

STAY HOME

RETURN TO SCHOOL*
After staying home for 5 days after the onset of symptoms or from the date of testing positive, are symptom-free, and are fever-free for 24 hours. If not symptom-free after 5 days, may return when symptom-free & fever-free for 24 hours.

No need to quarantine*
(CDC recommends a PCR test after day five)