

Ms. Wilcox's Student Supply List

For those of you that turned in your Blue Binder at the end of last year -Thank you!
And for those of you that misplaced, forgot, or are new no worries I will have one for you the first day 😊 We will continue to work on organizing skills with it. I will also have a new desk box for everyone to hold desk supplies as a new goodie for the beginning of the year 😊 ? email nwilcox@sbcoe.k12.ca.us

As you are preparing for school, you will need to have on hand a few items :

Most of these can be found at the Dollar Store/Target anything close will work 😊

- 5 subject dividers for binder labeled: Math, Language Arts, Social Studies, Science, Other
- 4 college-ruled notebooks (thin skinny ones 😊 for subject notebook projects in ELA, Math, History, and Science)
- Blank paper Sketchbook
- computer headphones in a ziplock bag- (to keep clean)
- a mouse (optional but makes it easier for the student)
- college ruled lined paper (100 sheets)
- Sticky notes
- 2 pens (black or blue)
- #2 pencils
- hand pencil sharpener (1-2 as they tend to break)
- highlighters (if possible multicolored)
- A pack of crayons
- 8 or 12 pack of colored pencils
- A pack of washable colored markers
- A black Sharpie Marker
- Scissors
- A roll of tape (sounds funny but pages tear?)
- Glue sticks (at least 2 to start with)
