

BEA Elementary Student Online Learning Expectations Temporary Virtual

The following expectations are in place to ensure a safe and meaningful learning environment for any BEA student who is engaging in his/her learning temporarily online after receiving prior approval by the principal or school nurse. Please review these expectations carefully.

1. Follow your daily schedule.

- a. Daily attendance will be taken at the beginning of each class.
- b. Students must be logged in by 8:15.
- c. Students must attend all sessions to be counted as present for a full day. If students partially attend, they will be counted as $\frac{1}{4}$ or $\frac{1}{2}$ day present as appropriate.
- d. Students logging in within 5 minutes after the bell will be marked tardy for that class. Anyone logging in after 5 minutes will be marked absent for that class.
 - i. You would be expected to attend/login to the next block/subject.
- e. Students must maintain online attendance throughout the duration of the lesson unless given permission by your teacher.
- f. Remember: Students can only receive attendance credit for online participation if they received administrative permission after a parent/guardian request or the school/district needs to go fully remote.

2. Be ready to learn.

- a. To receive credit for attendance, you must have your Zoom video on for the entire class.
 - i. Exception: Teacher gives you permission to turn your video off for a specific reason.
 - ii. Exception: Teacher gives you permission to do a different activity for a specific reason.
- b. Your first and last name should be used for your Zoom screen for easy identification.
- c. You should adjust lighting as needed to ensure you are visible.
- d. You must be sitting up in a work space that facilitates learning and be visible on the screen.
 - i. Primary students will need an adult nearby to help them navigate to the appropriate links and sites. Please understand they will need your support with different activities throughout the day.
- e. All other electronic devices (e.g., cell phones, X-Box, PS4, handhelds, etc.), toys, and pets should not be used or played with in your designated work space.
- f. No food or snacks should be eaten during class unless given permission by the teacher.
- g. Keep yourself muted until it is appropriate to unmute to ask/answer questions, participate in a discussion, etc.
- h. Virtual and real-life backgrounds must be appropriate.
- i. Remember: The student handbook applies, including dress code expectations.

3. Actively participate.

- a. Ask clarifying questions and listen carefully to others.

- b. Use reaction buttons to actively participate in class discussions and to encourage peers.
- c. Turn off all computer notifications so you are not distracted.
- d. Close extra windows and there should be no other tabs running
- e. Turn off your cell phone, TV, Video Games, etc. so you are not distracted.

4. Stay informed and communicate.

- a. Check your email and platform (e.g., Class Dojo, Remind, Bloomz, Google Classroom) communication daily for announcements.
- b. It is your responsibility to check in with teachers if you need additional help.
 - i. Email or message your teacher in a respectful manner.
 - 1. Include a clear, direct subject line.
 - a. Example: Question about upcoming test
 - 2. Use an appropriate salutation (opening).
 - a. Greetings,
 - b. Dear Mr./Mrs. _____,
 - c. To Whom It May Concern,
 - 3. Use exclamation points, all caps, bold, and underline SPARINGLY!
 - 4. Proofread your message before sending. Be sure it makes sense.
 - 5. Be respectful with your tone. "Please" and "thank you" go a long way.
 - 6. Use an easy-to-read font.
 - 7. Use an appropriate closing with your first and last name.
 - a. Examples: Sincerely or Respectfully