Dr. Daniel Hollowell
Superintendent of Schools

Parents of BUGC 7th Graders,

As we approach the end of the school year, 7th graders will be turning in their Chromebooks on Tuesday, May 22, 2018.

The Chromebooks will need to be fully charged, and have the bag and adapter/power cord with them on that date. Anything missing will be charged to your student's account. The only exception would be if your student is absent on that day (they would need to turn it into their school's office on the next attendance day).

All Chromebooks will be evaluated to determine their condition. If there is a repair needed, a $25 repair charge will be charged to your student's account. A missing adapter is a $20 charge. A missing bag is a $10 charge.

Thank you!
