

Beaverettes Victorious Over The Rustlers

The Hanson girls' basketball team was on the road to Ethan on Saturday, December 10, to take on the Ethan Rustlers.

The varsity defeated the Rustlers, 75-65. Leading the team in scoring was Annalyse Weber with 18 points followed by Eliza Oltmanns with 16. Erin Dewald and Kylie Haiar put up 10 points apiece. Alyssa Moschell and Taziah Hawkins added eight points each.

Karlie Goergen dished out nine assists in the game while Hawkins had four assists.

Haiar led the team in rebounding, pulling down nine boards. Goergen and Weber tallied five rebounds apiece.

The team hit 27-of-53 (51%) from the field; and sank 14-of-26 (54%) from the charity stripe.

The Beaverettes' record

moved to 1-1.

The junior varsity easily beat the Rustlers, 56-14. Haiar led all scorers with 21 points. Paige Endorf had nine points while Cadence Jarding added eight. Hawkins contributed five points in the win.

Jarding handed out five assists in the game while Endorf had three.

Jarding recorded three steals on the night.

The JV improved their record to 2-0.

The Beaverettes host Menno on Friday, December 16, in a doubleheader with the boys' basketball team. The JV girls' team is scheduled to play at 4:00 PM at the auditorium on main street. The varsity girls' team play at 6:15 PM in the school gym.

Beavers Fall To Ethan In Season Opener

The Hanson Beavers boys' basketball team opened their season at home against the Ethan Rustlers on Friday, December 9.

Ethan jumped out to an 18-11 lead in the first quarter. The Beavers battled back in the second, outscoring Ethan 17-7. Halftime score was Hanson 28, Ethan 25.

In the third quarter, the Beavers slightly increased their lead, 41-34. Ethan came out in the fourth and outscored the Beavers 16-8, handing the Beavers a loss, 49-50.

Leading the offense for the Beavers was Jackson Jarding with 19 points followed by Jayce Slaba with 14. Ethan Cheeseman cashed in 11 points.

Jarding and Cheeseman dished out three assists each in the game while Slaba, Sutton Dewald and Hadley Wallace handed out two assists apiece.

Cheeseman pulled down 15 rebounds to lead the team. Jarding and Wallace grabbed four boards apiece.

Jarding marked three steals in the game while Tye Hernandez had two.

Cheeseman tallied three blocks on the night while Slaba and Dewald had one each.

The varsity hit 17-of-30 (57%) from the field; made four-of-10 (40%) from three point range; and sank three-of-eight (38%) from the free throw line.

The junior varsity downed the Rustlers, 39-26. Leading the offense was Ben Wilber with 14 points followed by AJ Wilber with 11. Hernandez put up six points while Carter Popp had four. Keaton Weber and Jeren Zens added two points apiece.

The boys' and girls' basketball teams will host the Menno Wolves in a doubleheader on Friday, December 16. The doubleheader will begin at 4:00 PM when the boys' C team team will play Menno at the auditorium on main street while the JV girls' team plays in the school gym. The JV boys' team is scheduled to take the court at 5:00 PM in the school gym. The varsity girls' team will play at 6:15 PM in the school gym with the varsity boys' team to follow.

Beavers Win Hanson Tourney

The Hanson junior high boys' basketball team played in the Hanson JH Boys' Basketball Tournament in Alexandria on Saturday, December 10.

In their first game of the tournament, the young Beavers easily defeated the Menno Wolves, 34-11. Jett Jager led the team in scoring with nine points followed by Pierce Kayser with eight. Westin Switzer cashed in six points while Rhett Marek had five points. Jason Porth, Braxon DeJong and Radek Jarding contributed two points apiece.

In their next game, the Beavers faced the Freeman Flyers. The Beavers beat the Flyers, 34-27. Leading the team in scoring was Kayser with eight points. Layton Popp and Carson Kampshoff put up six points apiece. Jager added five points while Jarding and Porth added four points each. Switzer had one point.

With the two wins, the Beavers advanced to the championship game against Mt. Vernon/Plankinton. The Beavers narrowly defeated MVP, 34-31. Jager and Kayser cashed in 10 points apiece to lead the team. Jarding contributed eight points while Switzer, Porth and Kampshoff added two points each.

The JH boys' basketball teams host Freeman Academy/Marion on Monday, December 12, and will be in Salem on Tuesday for their final game of the season.

The Hanson JH boys' basketball team won the Hanson JH Tournament last weekend. Members of the team include, front row (L-R): Rhett Marek, Layton Popp, Dawson Huber, Carter Ruden, Braxon DeJong; back row: Jason Porth, Carson Kampshoff, Radek Jarding, Jett Jager, Westin Switzer, Pierce Kayser.

Junior High Girls Place Second At Viborg-Hurley Tournament

The Hanson junior high girls' basketball team traveled to Hurley on Saturday, December 10, to play in the Viborg-Hurley JH Girls' Basketball Tournament.

The young Beaverettes faced V-H in their first game and were victorious, 23-6. Leading the team in scoring was Jacey Schoenrock and Brooklyn Schroeder with six points each. Ava Doyle had five points while Audrina Waldera added four points. Lacey Easton had two points.

In their next game, the Beaverettes defeated Irene-Wakonda, 35-23. Schoenrock and Isabel Kayser led the team in scoring with 11 points apiece. L. Easton cashed in eight points while Doyle had three. Hannah Easton added two points.

With the wins, the Beaverettes advanced to the championship game against Bridgewater-Emery. The girls fell to B-E, 11-16, placing second at the tournament. Scoring for Hanson was Doyle with five points; Schoenrock, three points; Kayser, two points; and L. Easton, one point.

The JH girls' basketball teams host Freeman Academy/Marion on Monday, December 12, for their final games of the season.

JH Beavers Take On Huskies

By Annalyse Weber

The Hanson junior high boys' basketball team traveled to Bridgewater on Thursday, December 8, to take on the Bridgewater-Emery Huskies.

The seventh grade team fell to the Huskies, 20-30. Leading the team was Carter Ruden with 10 points. Braxon DeJong trailed behind Ruden, scoring eight points while Dawson Huber added two points for the Beavers. Their record is now 3-5.

The eighth grade team crushed the Huskies with a score of 52-28. Leading the team was Jett Jager with 21 points. Westin Switzer contributed 10 points while Pierce Kayser added eight. Radek Jarding cashed in seven points while Carson Kampshoff and Layton Popp added four points and two points, respectively. Their record is now 13-1.

Beaverettes Split With Huskies

The Hanson junior high girls' basketball team was on the road to Bridgewater on Thursday, December 8, to take on the Bridgewater-Emery Huskies.

The seventh grade team was victorious over the Huskies, 28-10, and remain undefeated, 8-0. Izzy Weber was the top scorer with 14 points. Brooklyn Schroeder and Neecee Suber added six points apiece. Ava Arend and Tacey Weber had one point each.

The eighth grade team fell to the Huskies, 31-36. Leading the team in scoring was Ava Doyle and Jacey Schoenrock with eight points apiece. Audrina Waldera put up six points while Isabel Kayser contributed five points. Lacey Easton added four points.

The eighth grade record moved to 9-4.

Early Dismissal
Thursday, December 22 at 12:15 PM
No School
December 23 - January 2

HANSON SCHOOL BREAKFAST/LUNCH MENU

Monday, Dec. 12

Breakfast:

Omelet, English Muffin
Fruit/Juice, Milk

Lunch:

Orange Chicken Stir Fry/Rice
Broccoli
Fruit, Milk

Tuesday, Dec. 13

Breakfast:

Cereal
Fruit/Juice, Milk

Lunch:

Softshell Taco
Refried Beans
Fruit, Milk

Wednesday, December 14

Breakfast:

Breakfast Sandwich
Fruit/Juice, Milk

Lunch:

Grilled Chicken/Bun
Fries
Fruit, Milk

Thursday, Dec. 15

Breakfast:

Egg Scramble, Toast
Fruit, Milk

Lunch:

Tator Tot Casserole
Bread
Fruit, Milk

Friday, Dec. 16

Breakfast:

Doughnuts, Cheese Stick
Fruit/Juice, Milk

Lunch:

Pizza
Veggie
Fruit, Milk

Hanson Wrestlers Open Season At KWL/PG Invitational Tournament

Two Hanson high school wrestlers opened their season at the Kimball/White Lake/Platte-Geddes Invitational Tournament in Kimball on Saturday, December 3.

Hanson junior, Brock Tuttle, wrestled in the 220 pound weight division, placing third overall. In his first match, Tuttle won by fall (2:52) over Parker Mathis of Winner. Tuttle lost by decision, 7-2, to Tim Bouza of Wagner in his second match. In the consolation semifinals, Tuttle won by fall (1:47) over Brayden Jervik of Parkston. In the third place match, Tuttle won by fall (2:21) over Parker Mathis of Winner.

Hanson freshman, Stetson Riggs, finished in fourth place overall. Riggs won by fall (1:21) over Evan Bartels of Winner. In his second match, Riggs won by fall (4:19) over Harley Cooks of Marion/Freeman. Riggs fell (0:45) to Keegan Haider of Wessington Springs/Woonsocket/

Wolsey-Wessington in his third match. In the consolation semifinals, Riggs won by decision, 5-0, over Jimmy Burma of Sunshine Bible Academy. In the third place match, Riggs fell (1:22) to Alex Pudwill of Warner/Northwestern.

Overall, Tuttle and Riggs placed 10th as a team out of 12 teams.

Riggs competed at the Ken Ruml Invitational in Howard on Saturday, December 10. No results were available at press time.

Hanson wrestler, Brock Tuttle, marks back points against a wrestler at the KWL/PG Invitational on December 3.

Stetson Riggs attempts to get control of a wrestler during the KWL/PG Invitational last weekend.

JH Teams Down Canistota Hawks

The Hanson junior high boys' basketball teams and the seventh grade girls' basketball team hosted the Canistota Hawks on Monday, December 5.

The seventh grade girls' team defeated the Hawks, 10-8, improving their record to 7-0. Izzy Weber led the team with five points followed by Brooklyn Schroeder and Haleigh Haiar with two points apiece. Ava Arnd had one point.

The seventh grade boys' team beat the Hawks, 26-14. Braxon DeJong led the team in scoring with eight points followed by Rhett Marek and Carter Ruden with six points apiece. Dawson Huber put up five points while Nash Hofer had one point.

The seventh grade advanced their record to 3-4.

The eighth grade boys' team moved their record to 12-1 with a win over the Hawks, 35-12. Pierce Kayser led the team with 11 points followed by Radek Jarding with nine. Westin Switzer cashed in six points while Jett Jager had five points. Carson Kampshoff added four points.

Hanson Powerlifters Perform Well In Mitchell

Four Hanson high school students competed in their first powerlifting competition in Mitchell on Saturday, December 10. Hanson was among six schools that participated in the event. Other schools competing were Dupree, Huron, Leola-Frederick, Mitchell and Sioux Falls Washington.

Lifters competed in 17 different weight divisions for boys and girls.

Hanson junior, Gavin Whitledge, placed first in the 275 pound division and lifted 1025 pounds.

Sophomore, Weston Kay-

ser, finished in first place, lifting 905 pounds in the 148 pound division.

Hanson freshman, Brayden Bahmuller, came in second in the 181 pound division and lifted 680 pounds.

Freshman, Trent Kayser, placed fifth in the 242 pound division, lifting 730 pounds.

The next competition for the lifters will be on Saturday, January 14, in Salem.

This is the first year of competition for the Hanson powerlifters. The lifters are coached by Jacob Giles and Wyatt Kayser.

Hanson powerlifters competing in Mitchell were (L-R): powerlifting coach-Wyatt Kayser, Brayden Bahmuller, Weston Kayser, Gavin Whitledge, Trent Kayser, powerlifting coach-Jacob Giles.