Golden Ticket Cafe Sets Record

By Kris Carmody, Fourth Grade Teacher

This year's third and fourth grade restaurant was record breaking! The Golden Ticket Cafe served 1,232 customers on its two nights of business on April 26 and 27.

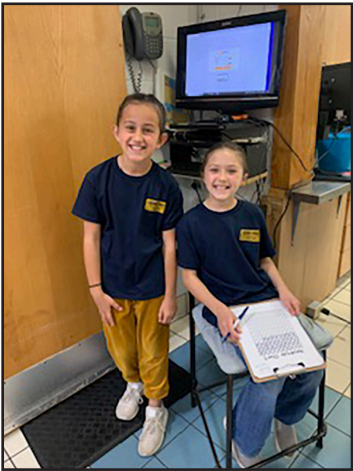

The restaurant theme was centered around the book, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. The students loved the book and participated in several activities. The students enjoyed the Chocolate Taste Test as well as The Everlasting Gobstopper Science Lab.

This was the 25th year for the third and fourth grade diner! This project is a favorite of the students and is a great school/community event.

Thank you to all who dined at The Golden Ticket Cafe!

Lindy Roster and Adisyn Wingen greet customers as they enter for the restaurant.

Cora Haiar and June Abbey count the number of customers going through the serving line.
