Kings/Tulare County Warmline: Anyone, any age, can call the non-crisis Kings/Tulare Warm Line available 24/7, including weekends and holidays. The Warm Line is a number you can call when you need to speak with someone who will listen to your concerns without judgment or criticism. It is a peer-to-peer telephone support service that is staffed by people who have experienced the same kinds of issues a caller might have. We are ready to listen when you are ready to talk. Call (877) 306-2413 (Toll-free)! <https://www.facebook.com/tkcwarmline/>

National Suicide Prevention Hotline: For suicide prevention, contact (800) 273-TALK (8255). No matter what problems you are dealing with, we want to help you find a reason to keep living. By calling 1-800-273-TALK (8255) you'll be connected to a skilled, trained counselor at a crisis center in your area, anytime 24/7. You can also text chat: Text HOME to 741741 from anywhere in the United States, anytime 24/7. <https://suicidepreventionlifeline.org/>

LOSS Team: The Local Outreach to Suicide Survivors, or L.O.S.S. Team, was developed by Dr. Frank Campbell of Baton Rouge, Louisiana and is comprised of volunteers who serve as a primary initial supports to local survivors of suicide loss (such as family members, friends, coworkers, etc. who have just lost someone to suicide). These teams typically function around-the-clock and respond to the scene of suspected suicide deaths once called in by the scene's first responder or hospital staff. Team members will interact with the family (known as loss survivors) and provide them with resources and support so that they do not have to feel alone as they seek to deal with the emotions that accompany losing someone to suicide. For more information regarding Kings County's LOSS Team, call Stephanie Bealer at (559) 852-2975. <http://www.kcbh.org/kcbh-news/loss-team>

Mental Health services for depression or other mental health challenges: Kings County Mental Health provides mental health services to individuals who are publicly insured or uninsured experiencing severe and persistent mental health challenges. To receive a mental health assessment Avenal, one can call the Kings County Mental Health Avenal clinic operated by Kings View at (559) 386-2295. <http://www.kingsview.org/avenal-mental-health-clinic> If one has private insurance, they would call the toll-free number on the back of their insurance card to inquire as to local mental health providers in their network, and be referred for assessment to an in-network provider affiliated with their insurance.
