Long-Term Goals

Goals for Spring 2023

Curriculum Guides–Review and Discuss

Small-Group Brainstorming for Curriculum Guides

Large-Group shareout of ideas for Curriculum Guides and Resources

Long-Term Goals of Parent Advisory Panel

Ongoing feedback with respect to resources that can help parents engage directly with the curriculum to support their children.

Understanding of standards-aligned curriculum and how units of instruction are designed

Consideration of primary resources utilized in each subject area and opportunities for parents to provide feedback about these resources to district

Opportunities for panel members to ask questions about the rationale for certain standards or topics

Understanding of rationales for certain teaching methods and strategies

Goal of Spring 2023

Advisory Panel members provide feedback and generate ideas for Curriculum Guides website, specifically:

- What types of resources would be most useful to parents to help support their children's educations?
- What are some common roadblocks or misunderstandings that may interfere with parents supporting their children with the curriculum? For example, parents learning certain concepts differently than how the students are being taught now.

Curriculum Guides website

The first version of the Curriculum Guides website lists the curricular topics for each grade level for English Language Arts (ELA), Math, Science, and Social Studies.

Please review the site and provide feedback as to its ease of use and layout.

Updates to each curricular area will be provided as they are developed by the district over time.

GOOGLE FORM

Please click on the hyperlink to fill out the Curriculum Review Parent Advisory Panel Input form. You do not need to be present at the meeting to fill out this form.

If you are able to attend the meeting, however, it would be best to wait until the meeting to fill out the form, as time will be provided for discussion in small groups that may help guide your input.

Even if you provide input that represents your group's discussion, you will still be welcome to fill out the form individually after the meeting.
