

Calling all Word Collectors

SUMMER READING!

This year, our summer reading challenge was inspired by the book the Word Collector

At JTPS, we asked that ALL children started a word collection. We asked children to gather as many MARVELOUS words as possible to share with our school community!

NOW it is time to share our words with the world!

Families, if you have not returned your child's word collecting journal, please do so by Friday, September 10th.

Next week we will celebrate our summer reading by sharing our magnificent words during a school-wide event. Your child will need their journal to prepare for the celebration.

OOPS
Did you forget?

No worries! There's still time!

Tonight when reading with your child, search for at least FIVE words AND write them on the word collector's sheet that is going home with your child.

It is never too late to become a word collector!
This is just the beginning of our adventure.
