

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

The procedures for selecting instructional materials shall reflect the following philosophy:

- A. To improve student achievement and promote skill development, real world application, responsible citizenship, literary appreciation, aesthetic and artistic values, and ethical standards.
- B. Be research based materials that enrich and support the curriculum. Consideration will be given to the varied interests, abilities, learning styles and developmental appropriateness.
- C. To represent varying sides of issues so that students may develop, under guidance, the practice of critical thinking, ethical standards and responsible citizenship
- D. To provide materials that celebrate our heritage and represent a global society.
- E. To place principle above personal opinion and reason above prejudices in the selection of materials of the highest quality.
