

Factors that are shared by two or more numbers are called common factors.

The greatest of the common factors is called the greatest common factor (gcf)