Today is Play-Doh Day, Cinnamon Raisin Bread Day, Guacamole Day, Step Family Day, Working Parents Day, Pawpaw Day and Mayflower Day.

Today we celebrate the following students:

Rogan Perkins for helping a 4th grader carry a large instrument from the band room to the 4th grade classroom.

Mackenzie Monroe arrived at her classroom and saw a student at the building doors alone and went to let them in. After Mackenzie opened the door, the student who was outside was very upset/panicking that the bus had left them behind so Mackenzie helped them talk to Mrs. McCutcheon and Ms. Troutman to find out where her bus was and who the student could wait with.

Brody Carlin - because whenever I pass him in the hall he always says hello. He is kind and polite and shows his peers the importance of kindness!

Parker Seaman for noticing the trophy case outside the concession stand keeps being opened and reopened. Out of concern, he's been watching it closely and reported the concern today in hopes of a fix. Thank you for noticing and reporting, Parker!
