

Work-Based Learning Program

General Education Work Experience Class
Danielle Defeo, Work Based Learning Coordinator
ddefeo@rcscsd.org

Work Based Learning are activities which engage employers and schools in providing structured learning experiences for students. Work Based Learning occurs away from school in a local business or company. Students apply their classroom knowledge and skills in the workplace.

21st Century Employability Skills

Workforce Readiness

Digital Literacy

Critical Thinking

Leadership Skills

BENEFITS FOR STUDENTS!!

Connects classroom learning to the real world

WBL helps students develop communication skills

Develop Interests & Abilities

Observe professionals in action

BENEFITS FOR RCS!!

Expansion of Curriculum

Business Community Involvement

Improved Academic Achievement

Increased student enrollment

BENEFITS FOR EMPLOYERS!!

Involvement in CTE Curriculum

Builds a pool of skilled workers

Reduce Training Costs

Improves Employee Retention

BENEFITS FOR COMMUNITY!!

Promotes Involvement

Economic Health

More Stable Local Workforce

Respect & Tolerance

DANIELLE DEFEO

WORK BASED LEARNING COORDINATOR

518-756-5200

RAVENA-COEYMANS-SELKIRK

HIGH SCHOOL

2025 RT.9W
RAVENA, NY 12143

email: ddefeo@rcscsd.org
website: www.rcscsd.org

- Requirement: Must be in Grade 11 and 12; Age 16 and up
 - Paid or Unpaid Opportunities
- Related Classroom Instruction: 1 period per week
- Experience Must Relate to Career Interest Inventory
- Students must mentor a manager/supervisor

RCS High School Credits Earned*

.5 Credit → 150 hours of work

1 Credit → 300 hours

1.5 Credits → 450 hours

2 Credits → 600 hours

Credit earned in this program can be applied towards a CTE Business Management Pathway which includes 3.5 Units.*

Class is held 9th period, 1:22 - 2:00 only 1 day a week.
The other 4 days students are working at the job site.

Students are required to keep records of their work hours, tasks and activities they perform on the job.

This program is registered and approved by the New York State Education Department

