JH/JV FB Game on Monday

For the FB games Monday at Thayer Central our fans will sit on the Northside of the bleachers and enter through the north gate on the northside of the track. They will also be collecting admission - $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for K-12 students.

Beginning September 16th, after our FALL KICK OFF, the Exeter Public Library welcomes students of all ages to join the LOL Club.

It will be Monday through Thursday. Students are welcome to come right after school and stay until 5pm. They are welcome to come and go as they please during that time

We will be offering help with homework or ther school work they may have. We will provide a small snack and the makerspace area will also be available for your child to use.

If your child plans to attend at any point through out the year, we ask that you fill out the form below. You only need to fill It out one time.

Please fill out the following information. There will be a box in the elementary wing at school your child may place the slip in, or you can drop it off at the public library.
