The purpose of Content Lab Days is to ensure equitable education to all eHS students through the components of Content Labs, Peer-Tutoring Labs, and Enrichment Labs.

- Content Lab: A teacher-assigned intervention that focuses on additional support for students who have earned a grade of less than 70% in a particular content area
  - Wednesdays: English & Social Sciences
  - Thursdays: Math, Science, & Computer Science
- Peer-Tutoring Lab: A student-selected or staff-assigned intervention that allows students to receive help from peer-tutors with specific assignments or skills within a given content area
  - Wednesdays: Math, Science, & Computer Science
  - Thursdays: English & Social Sciences
- Enrichment Lab: A student-selected or staff-assigned activity in which eHS faculty or guests give seminars &/or facilitate activities on various interesting topics sparking curiosity or supporting student social-emotional learning

All onsite students are required to participate in this program.

Seniors who do not report to eHS until 3rd period or later are only required to attend if they are assigned to a Content Lab for intervention purposes. If a senior cannot attend an assigned Content Lab due to work or internship, they will be assigned Academic Saturday School for intervention instead.

RTI Scheduler will be used to assign students to their sessions for the week, including communication to students via their @lrstem.com Google account.
