1: Jointly Developed Expectations and Objectives

Describe how the School works with parents and families to develop and review relevant plans, policies, and strategies related to engagement.

Guiding Questions

- 1.1: How does the School - in collaboration with parents - establish an engagement plan that reflects the specific academic improvement needs of the School, and that includes programs and practices that enhance engagement and address the specific engagement needs of students and their families?
[A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(a)]
- 1.2: What efforts have been made to ensure adequate representation of parents and families of participating children in the process (Title I families)?
[ESSA § 1116(c)(3)]

The Parent and Family Engagement Committee, which is made up of the parent facilitator, principal, faculty members, and parents will meet as needed to make decisions about parent and family engagement activities. The tasks of the committee include but are not limited to:

Review, evaluate, and update the Parent and Family Engagement Plan, at least annually, to meet the changing needs of parents and the school

Ensure adequate representation of parents of participating children in the process in a variety of roles

Submit any parent comments to the district if the Title I Schoolwide Plan is not satisfactory to parents

Address opportunities for regular meetings if requested by parents

2: Communication

Describe how the School will communicate with and distribute information to parents and families.

Guiding Questions

- 2.1: How does the School distribute an informational packet appropriate for the age and grade of each child annually, ensuring to include:
  - description of the engagement program
  - recommended roles for parents, students, teacher, and the School
  - ways for a family to get involved
  - survey regarding volunteer interests
  - schedule of activities planned throughout the school year
  - regular, two-way, and meaningful system for parents/teachers to communicate[A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(b)(3)(B)(1)]
- 2.2: How will the School ensure information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities is provided to parents in a format and in a language that parents can understand (to the extent practicable)?
  - how is relevant information provided in a variety of ways? (For example, paper copies made available, as well as social media posts, website links, parent apps, etc.?

[ESSA § 1116(e)(5)]

- 2.3: How does the School offer flexible opportunities for meetings with families?

[ESSA § 1116(c)(2)]

The Parent/Family Engagement plan will be posted on the district website, a paper copy will be available in the elementary office upon request.

Greenland Elementary will keep parents informed about activities that they could become involved in with the use of:

District Website

Thrillshare alerts via app, text, email, and social media

Teacher websites

Surveys

Calendar

School Closings

Social Media

Facebook, Twitter and Instagram

School marquee

Apptegy Rooms on the District's Mobile APP

The Greenland Elementary School Parent and Family Engagement Plan is available to families and the local community, contact information for the parent facilitator is included.

Meetings will be offered at various times to increase parent and community involvement. These meetings will be offered in various formats, which include online and in-person meetings.

Parent/Teacher meetings are offered through Google Meet, FaceTime, Google Hangout, Zoom and phone calls. This allows parents to pick a time to meet when it is convenient for them. Home visits with multiple staff members are available if necessary. The school accesses the district social worker to determine student needs.

Each teacher will send home a folder containing class newsletters, student papers and work samples each week. This folder will also house permission slips for field trips, book order forms, volunteer opportunities for the classroom and general information about clubs and sponsored events at the school.

The school will provide to parents a standards based report card every 9 weeks with information regarding their child's academic progress, study habits, and citizenship.

3: Building Staff Capacity

Describe activities that will be used with School staff to build their capacity to work with parents as equal partners.

Guiding Questions

3.1: How does the School build staff capacity to work with parents as equal partners? This may include workshops, conferences, trainings, webinars, and online resources that will be used to ensure ALL School staff (including teachers, specialized instructional personnel, principals, and other School leaders) are aware of:

- the value and utility of contributions of parents [Title I schools]
- how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners [Title I schools]
- how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between home and the School [Title I schools]
- how to respond to parent requests for parent and family engagement activities [Title I schools]
- that parents play an integral role in assisting student learning [all schools]
- how to welcome parents into the School and seek parental support and assistance [all schools]
- the School's process for resolving parent concerns as outlined in the School handbook, including how to define a problem, whom to approach first, and how to develop solutions [all schools]

[ESSA § 1116(e)(3;14); A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(b)(5-7)]

Parent and Family Engagement professional development opportunities are provided by Northwest Arkansas Educational Service Cooperative, Arkansas Ideas and at Greenland Elementary School. These trainings are designed to help faculty and staff understand how to relate to families, communicate effectively and build positive working relationships.

Greenland Elementary faculty and staff recognize parents as equal partners in the students' educational process and the importance of parent contributions in students' achievement.

Teachers are provided time in their schedule each week to meet with their core team of teachers to discuss students. These opportunities are mentioned below. Students' growth patterns and how they differ among gender, grades, and each child are discussed.

During our Back to School Professional Development, GESstaff discusses the importance of a proactive partnership between the student-family-school. During this professional development we discuss positive, open, transparent communication and the expectations of all staff members. Teachers are encouraged to access social media and their websites as a means to communicate with parents. Teachers use Apptegy ROoms, email, text messages, FaceBook and seesaw to communicate with parents.

Professional learning communities meet weekly, for core teachers, to determine student curriculum needs. We meet with district leaders in literacy, math, as well as our instructional facilitators and interventionists to help individual teachers/students.

5: Coordination

Describe how the School will coordinate with other organizations, businesses, and community partners, including alumni, to provide additional supports, services, and resources to families..

Guiding Questions

- 5.1: How does the School investigate and utilize community resources in the instructional program?
[ADE Rules Governing Parental Involvement Section 5.06]
- 5.2: How does the School coordinate and integrate programs and activities with other Federal, State, and local programs? Some examples include:
  - public preschool programs such as Head Start
  - organizations/activities to help students transition to elementary, middle, high, and postsecondary schools or careers
  - wraparound services that allow families to send their children to school ready and able to focus on learning
[ESSA §1116(e)(4)]
- 5.3: In what ways does the School enable the formation of a Parent Teacher Association or organization and ensure leaders of said organization will be included in appropriate decisions?
[A.C.A. § 6-15-1702(b)(8)(B)(ii)]

Greenland Elementary School will coordinate with other organizations, businesses, and community partners to provide additional supports and resources to families by:

Invite parent and community partners to speak to students

Collaborate with Greenland Middle School to provide a smooth transition from one school to the other

Promote and support responsible parenting

Encourage alumni to create an alumni advisory commission

Use of the following community resources to strengthen our school programs, practices, and learning: clothes closet, school supplies, and snack packs, pirate pantry, essential outreach

Incorporate this plan into the school's improvement plan

Ozark Guidance School Based Services-referrals made by parents and teachers for mental health services.

Social Emotional Learning-Implemented in every grade level using the Mind-Up curriculum and the school counselor.

6: Annual Title I Meeting (Title I schools)

Describe the details regarding the Annual Title I meeting used to inform parents of the requirements of Title I, the School's participation, and the parents' rights to be involved.

Guiding Questions

- 6.1: *How and when (month/year) does the School conduct the Annual Title I meeting, ensuring that parents are informed of the following? (*Include a link to the detailed agenda, meeting minutes, and/or slide deck for this year's Annual Title I Meeting, if available.)*
  - the requirements of Title I and the School's participation
  - the parents' rights under Title I (The Right to Know Teacher Qualifications, Right to Request Meetings)
[ESSA § 1116(c)(1)]

Greenland Elementary will hold an Annual Title I meeting in September/October. The purpose of the annual Title I meeting is to:

Inform parents of the requirements of Title I and the school's participation

Inform parents' of their rights under Title I

7: School-Parent Compact (Title I schools)

Describe the process School will follow to jointly develop with parents a School-Parent Compact as required under Title I, Part A.

Guiding Questions

- 7.1: How does the School jointly develop a School-Parent Compact which does the following:
  - Outlines how parents, the entire School staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement
  - Addresses the importance of regular two-way, meaningful communication through:
    - conferences (no fewer than 2 each year)
    - frequent reports on progress
    - reasonable access to staff
    - opportunities to volunteer
    - observation of classroom activities
[ESSA § 1116(d)]
- 7.2: How do families access the compact in order to understand the shared responsibility for improved student academic achievement?
  - Including parent-teacher conferences in elementary Schools, at least annually
  - Include a link or insert the language of the compact to demonstrate this requirement has been met.
[ESSA § 1116(d)(2)(A)]

We will use the current School-Parent Compact to have parents review it and offer feedback on how to improve it to best serve the needs of our parents and students. Revisions will be made as needed by the school's parent engagement committee.

Greenland Elementary and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improving student academic achievement.

School Responsibilities

Greenland Elementary will:

Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards

Provide regular two-way, meaningful communication in the following ways:

The Student Handbook

Annual Open House

Parent/Teacher Conferences (fall and spring)

Progress Reports and Report Cards sent home quarterly

Summative test results

Conferences with teachers upon request

Opportunities to volunteer

Observation of classroom activities

Parent Teacher Organization (PTO) meetings

Parent volunteer survey

Monthly updates and volunteer opportunities in the counselor's newsletter, available online

Parent and family nights

Access to student behavior via LiveSchool

Recognize that parents should be involved in a variety of roles and provide these roles through collaboration with the school's PTO

Parent/Guardian Responsibilities:

We, as parents/guardians, will support our children's learning in the following ways:

Help my child(ren) attend school regularly with supplies, well-rested and on time

Establish a time and place for schoolwork and review my child(ren)'s work regularly

Spend time each day with my child(ren) reading, writing, listening, and/or just talking

Communicate with my child(ren)'s teachers through a take-home binder/folder, email, phone calls through the office and/or other designated communication tools

Offer praise and encouragement to my child(ren)

Help my child(ren) learn to resolve conflict in positive ways

Be involved in planning, improving, and reviewing parent involvement opportunities

8: Reservation of Funds (Title I schools)

Describe how the School uses Title I, Part A funds set-aside for parent and family engagement programs and activities.

Guiding Questions

- 8.1: If the School is a recipient of set aside funds for parent and family engagement (as part of receiving a Title I, Part A allocation greater than $500,000):
  - How is the School spending those funds?
  - How does the School determine the priority of how funds are spent?
  - Who is involved in determining that?
[ESSA § 1116(a)(3)(A)]
- 8.2: How does the School provide opportunities for parents and family members to be involved in providing input into how the funds are used?
[ESSA § 1116(a)(3)(B); ESSA § 1116(a)(3)(C); ESSA § 1116(a)(3)(D)(i-v)]

The school does not have a required set aside for parent engagement funds, however, the district does allocate funds annually to the school for parent engagement materials and activities.

The parent facilitator will utilize parent meetings and parent surveys to disseminate information regarding funds and receive input on how the funds are used. The Greenland Elementary Parent and Family Engagement Committee will collaborate with school personnel to determine how best to use funds for programs and events.
