

WORK-STUDY REGULATION

In accordance with the policy of the board of education, this regulation shall govern the work-study program in the Yale Public School system.

1. In order to qualify for the work-study program, a senior high school student must be able to complete graduation requirements during the senior year.
2. The student must obtain parental and school permission.
3. The student may be absent from school for employment purposes a maximum of one hour each school day, during the last hour of the day. The student must be in attendance for six hours each school day.
4. The student must be passing in in all subjects during the first semester to be eligible for work-study the second semester. Classes in physical education, band, vocal music, yearbook, and athletics will not apply toward work-study eligibility.
5. School officials may visit the student's place of employment on a periodic basis to insure that the student is maintaining satisfactory employment during the hours the student is excused from class.
6. If the student's employment is terminated, the student must obtain other employment within one week or return to full time attendance.
