Each turn of the wheels brings the Ellis Railroaders of '63 nearer and nearer to their last stop---graduation. From the caboose to the engine, this little train is loaded with knowledge and happy memories for each senior. Now let us switch our memories to the past and view the triumphs, achievements, activities, and gala occasions of the past year.

SENIOR CLASS HISTO

CLASS COLORS Blue and White

CLA

The kaleidoscope of senior memories reveals many golden dreams cor seniors of 1963, peer proudly into it. Though we entered the mystic halls freshmen in 1959, we graduate as adult men and women prepared to take o society.

Our debut was characterized by 49 hearts and hands eager to grasp the tendents united to form one of the most memorable classes that has entered Ellis High. To financial and social events as frosh, we chose Linda Gurtler as class president, Larry Mall president, Martha Beals as secretary, and Kay Reaves as treasurer. The traditional Hobo Durant first money-making project, the proceeds of which were carefully put into a class treasury for the honor of sponsoring a prom in the future. Following the success of Hobo Day, a class party was held to make up for the hard work performed during the day. This was only the first of several parties to be enjoyed by all of us, as we sincerely believe in the old adage--all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.

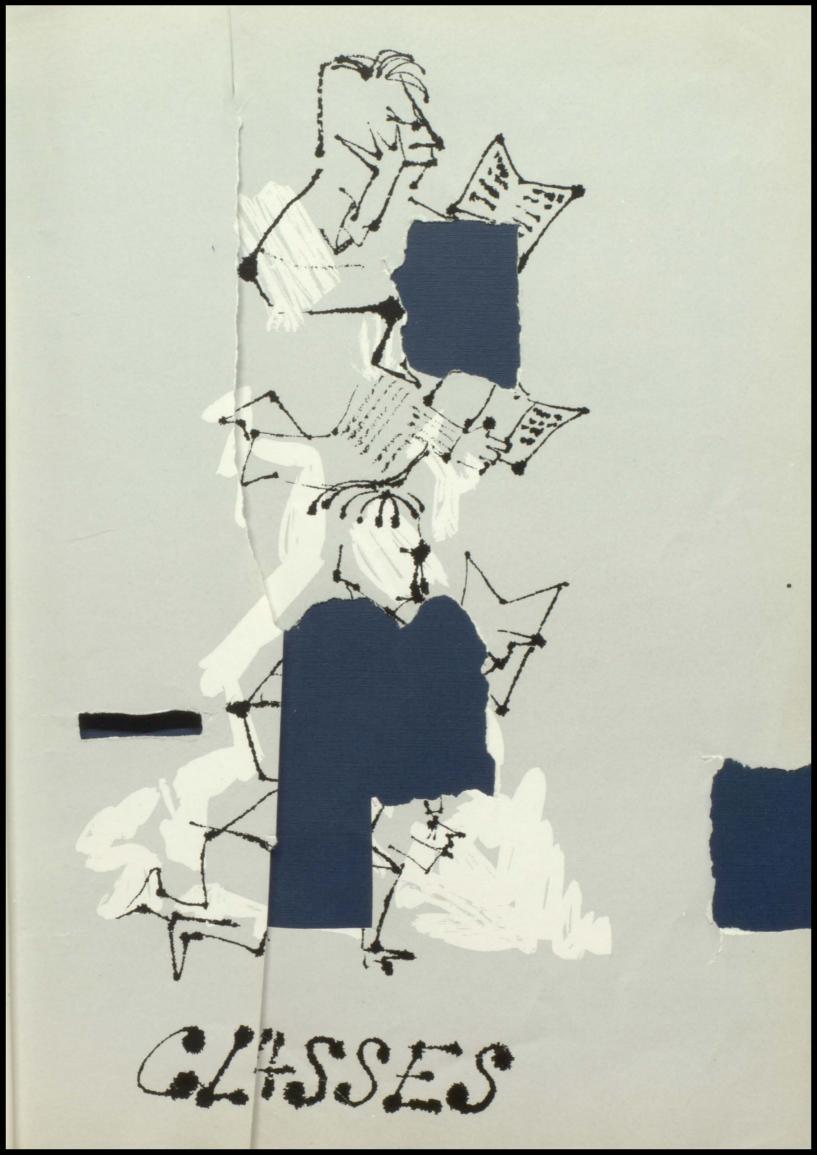

When we returned the following year, we were glad to see the original class back with that over-flowing spirit to learn, work, and have fun. Class officers for this year were: Larry Mallory, president; Joleen Deutscher, vice president; Martha Beals, treasurer; and Carol Lorimor, secretary. We will always remember this year for we were allowed to participate in the sale of concessions, namely popcorn. All of those nights in the popcorn stand leave many of us with "popping" memories. At the close of our sophomore year, we were saddened by the loss of nine of our cherished classmates. These included Richard Battin, Claudia Deutscher, Anita Franta, Linda Gurtler, Marilyn Haas, Anton Rupp, Juanita Roth, and Kay Reaves.

Our arrival as upperclassmen the following September found us eagerly welcoming four new students--Kenneth Eberle, Michael Hull, Sylvia Eberle, and Margaret Begler--to our class. Class officers for our junior year were: president, Ellen Armbruster; vice president, Diane Dreher; secretary, Joleen Deutscher; and treasurer, Lynda Bongartz. As juniors we chose to sponsor the homecoming dance as another of our financial projects. To add to the festivities of homecoming, we were awarded, for the second consecutive year, first place for our decorative float. Our final project towards appropriating funds for the presentation of the Prom in May was the production of the Junior Play "Who Dunit," a comical mystery. The highlight of our third high school year was the honor of sponsoring the annual Prom. On May 5, to hail the graduating seniors of 1962, we gave a spectacular Prom. The theme was "Showboat" and it was splendid in its decorations of gold, red, and white while the Stockton High School Dance Band provided dreamy dancing music. We had due reason to be proud for it was a grand success!

We began our final year as "almighty seniors" with the loss of Stephen Roper, Martha Beals, and Rosetta Schmidt and the entrance of Thomas Jacobsen. We elected Skipper Matteson as class president; Robert Jacques, vice president; Carol Lorimor, secretary; and Nancy Baugher, treasurer. Once again we came out on top in the homecoming parade with our first-place float. The combined efforts of the seniors further produced the Orange and Black Review, our school newspaper. As spring approached, our thoughts turned toward graduation and its preparations. Graduation was the big moment in our lives for it brought us a step closer in attaining our goals.

As we prepare to leave these golden halls of knowledge, diploma in hand, the treasured memories of our high school years parade vividly before us. Ellis High School will always hold a special place in our hearts, for it was here that we molded our minds for the future.

Picking Class Rings

The Lobby

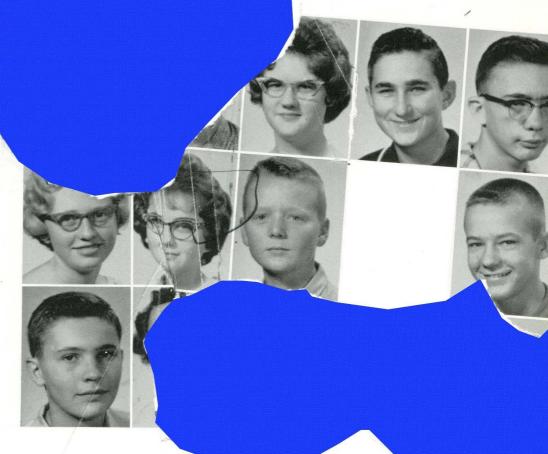

The radiant juniors spent many long hours working on their class activities this school year. The first big event was sponsoring the annual Homecoming Dance on October 26. The juniors spent many long and hard working hours on the Junior Play. They presented it on November 16. Two weeks following this the juniors were hosts to an all-school dance. One of the biggest moments in the junior year is choosing their class rings. This annual event took place on January 15. The most important activity of the Junior Class is presenting the Junior-Senior Prom. Much time is spent planning the menu, decorating the gym, and training the servers.

The Junior Class officers are Doug Balcombe, president; Leon Flax, vice-president; Nancy Armentrout, secretary; Carol Huber, treasurer; Leon Gaschler, Brenda Dirks, and Sheryl Simminger, representatives. The sponsors are Miss Enola VonLintel and Mr. Arlin Mills.

Biology Class

The Sophomore Class sold popcorn and pop at all home ball games. After the football game on October 5, they sponsored an all-school dance. A class party was held on November 11. Twelve lucky sophomores served at the Junior Prom. The final event for this year is the class party. The class officers are Duane Keller, president; Myron Kroeger, vice-president; Judy Younger, secretary; Warren Allen, treasurer; Billy King, Jim Scott, and Betty Mayes, representatives. Mrs. Alice Balcombe and Mr. Don Freeman are class sponsors.

Ellis High School held its Homecoming for 1962 on October 26. The afternoon parade saw the classes and organizations well represented by their colorful and artistic floats. The Senior Class proudly took first place with their float, "Orbit 'Em." Second place was won by the freshmen and third by the sophomores. In pre-game activities, Miss Joleen Deutscher was crowned queen. There was a tie between Dennis Wolf and John Helget for Homecoming King. Royal attendants were Miss Diane Dreher, Miss Carol Lorimor, and Bill Seibel. Unfortunately the game with Hill City resulted in a loss. The dance sponsored by the Junior Class followed the game.

THE

The theme "Stardust" was given to the Kayette Snowball of 1962.

The decorations were monochromatic starting in dark blue blending into white.

The throne was decorated like a soft, fluffy cloud. The Wakeeney Dance Band furnished the music.

During intermission the crowning took place. The queen, Miss Virginia Gabel, and her attendants, Miss Margaret Begler and Miss Ann Nelson, reigned over the Snowball for the rest of the evening. The princesses from each class were Debbie Daily, freshman; Aleta Schumm, sophomore; Sheryl Simminger, junior. The servers were Bonnie Clotfelter, Sherilyn Robertson, Madesta Engstrand, and Mary Jo Wasinger.

As the Railroader rolls slowly into the Ellis High School Terminal, the graduating seniors of 1963 bid farewell to their fellow passengers and extend their thanks to the faculty, school board, and the citizens of Ellis. Soon each senior will board his own train of the future, taking him away from the home station. But with him he will take many unforgetable memories of the past four years. His vacated seat will be reserved for an incoming freshman; and in September the little train will once again begin its journey through another memorable year for the students of Ellis High School.
