STUDENT LIFE

Another Year at Ellis High School

The Ellis Railroaders begin the day on the right track. The buses bring a portion of the students to and from school. The lockers are usually the first place the students go to in the morning. On their way to class Dean Gaschler and Phil Wertz climb the ever ascending stairs of E. H. S. Going to the library fits into the daily routine.

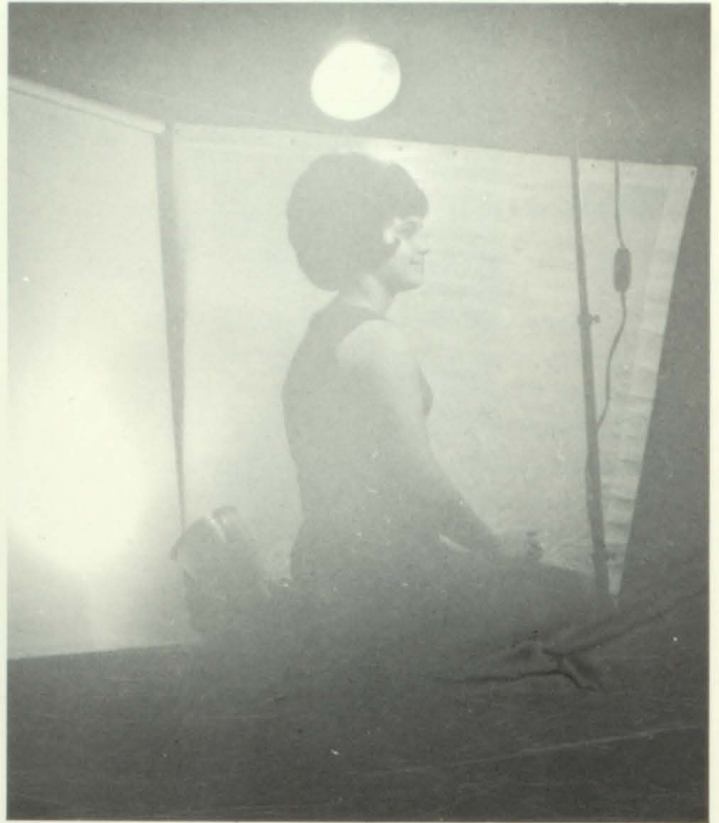

Moments to Remember

Students at Ellis High School have a variety of activities to attend during the school year. Among these are pep assemblies and basketball games. Miss Vinson spoke to the Kays and Kayette board members. Mr. Bray installed the officers at the beginning of the year. Throughout the year, there were a number of assemblies and lyceums.

Mid Scenes We Love So Well

Life isn't all work at Ellis High School. There is plenty of time for participation in activities. Among these are the lyceums and assemblies. The new Kay and Kayette members are initiated into the clubs.

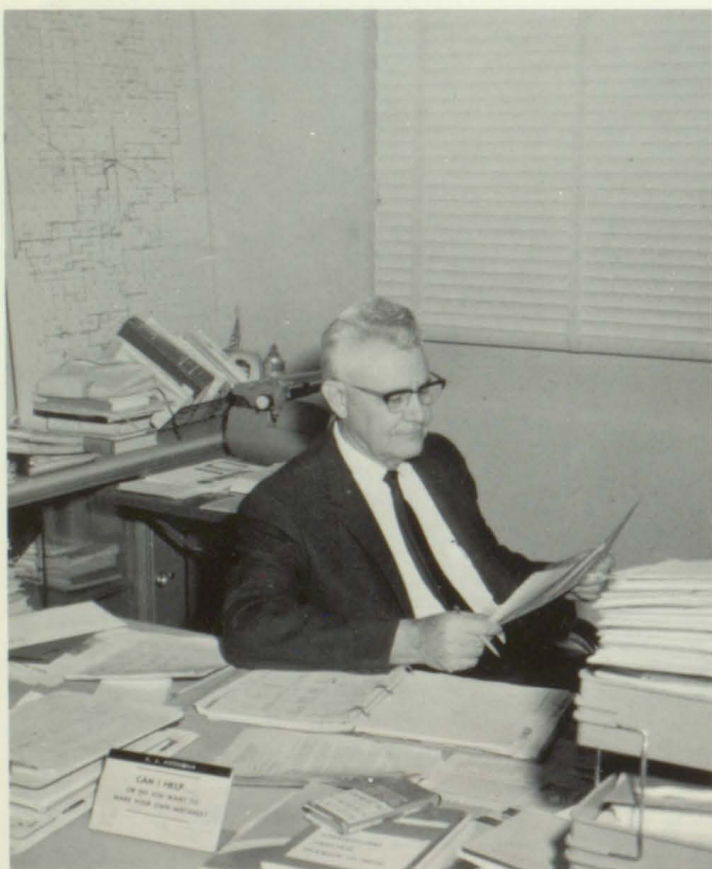

As the year draws to a close, the halls of Ellis High School will never be forgotten. It was in these halls that we made new acquaintances and appreciated our old friends. Some faces will be forgotten, and the long hours of study and hardship will pass, but the friendships we acquired and the fun we shared will be treasured moments that will always be remembered.

Administration and Office Personnel Kept Busy throughout the Year

Ellis High School is proud of its administration. This is the first year that our principal, Mr. Bray and our superintendent, Mr. Fitzgerald have not taught any classes. This enables them to attend to other duties that confront them concerning school.

Election of some new school board members were also held this year. Mr. Fitzgerald works closely with the school board members. Their concern is the good of the student.

Working tediously in the office each day are the secretaries, Marge Wiesner and Dorothy Waldschmidt. They assist Mr. Fitzgerald and Mr. Bray, as well as the students, in a number of ways.

CUSTODIAN: Blair Furbeck

CUSTODIAN: Bill Kinderknecht

The personnel help the students and faculty at Ellis High School. The office girls assist in the office with roll call, typing, and answering the phone. The librarians keep the books and magazines in order in the library. The school is kept clean and in good condition by the custodians. Being a bus driver isn't always easy. They travel many miles each year taking students to and from school and taking them to games, contests, and league outings. The cafeteria operates efficiently under the able hands of the cooks.

Social Studies Inform Students of World

Mr. Mote keeps the Constitution class working hard.

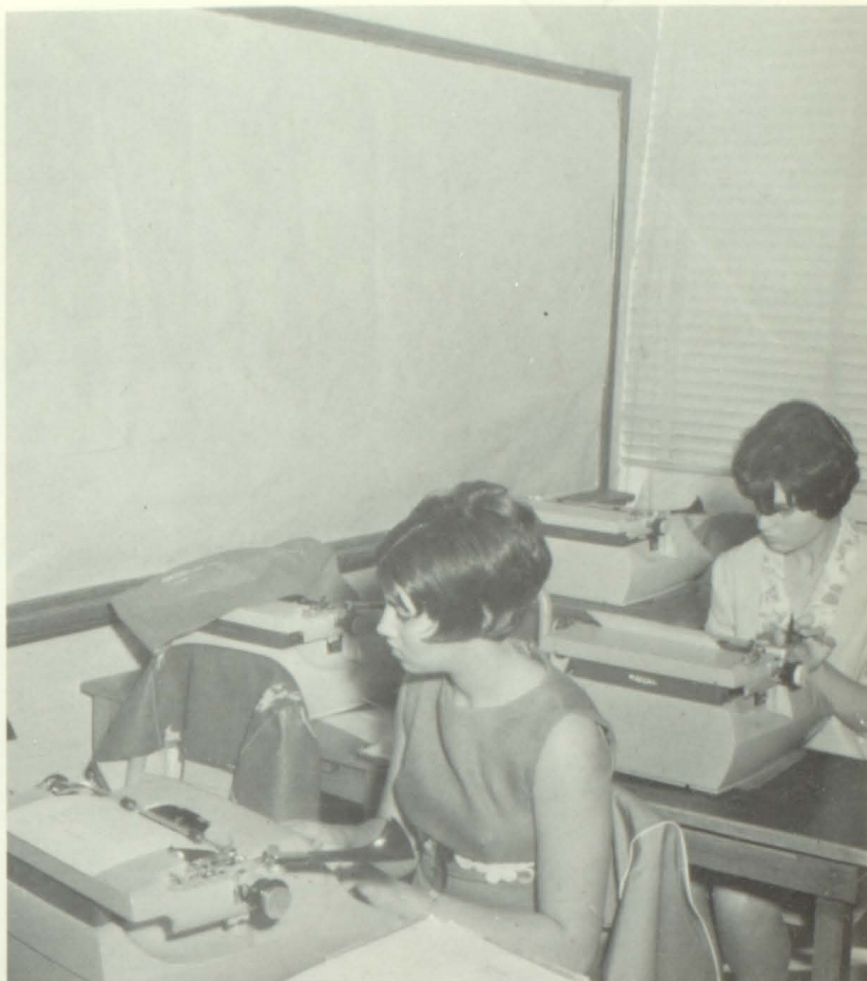

Constitution, World history, and American history are the history classes offered at Ellis High School. Constitution - international relations is a required course for juniors. Seniors are required to take American history. Mr. Mote teaches Constitution - international relations and world history. Mr. Joachim teaches American history.

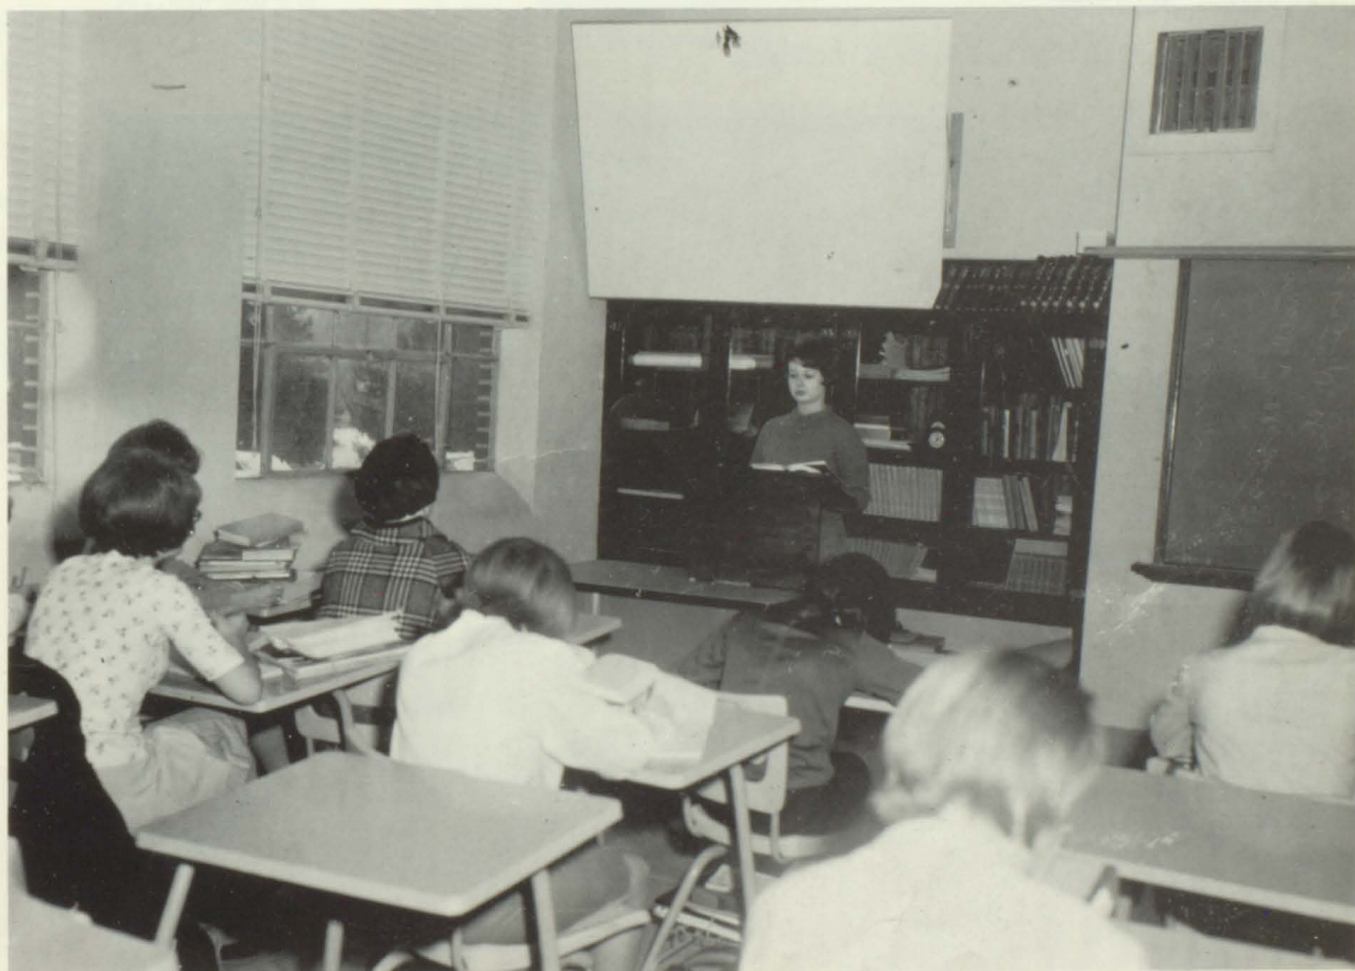

American History students learn of the history of the United States.

Commerce Prepares Students for Career in Business

Teaching commerce at Ellis High School is Miss Horchem. Two years of typing are offered. During the first year basic skills are taught. The second year, skills are further developed and office practices are taught; shorthand and bookkeeping are other business courses offered.

Laura Beggs and Lila Weigel type rapidly away.

The shorthand class takes dictation from Miss Horchem.

Terry Zerfas experiments in chemistry.

Math and Science Provide Special Training

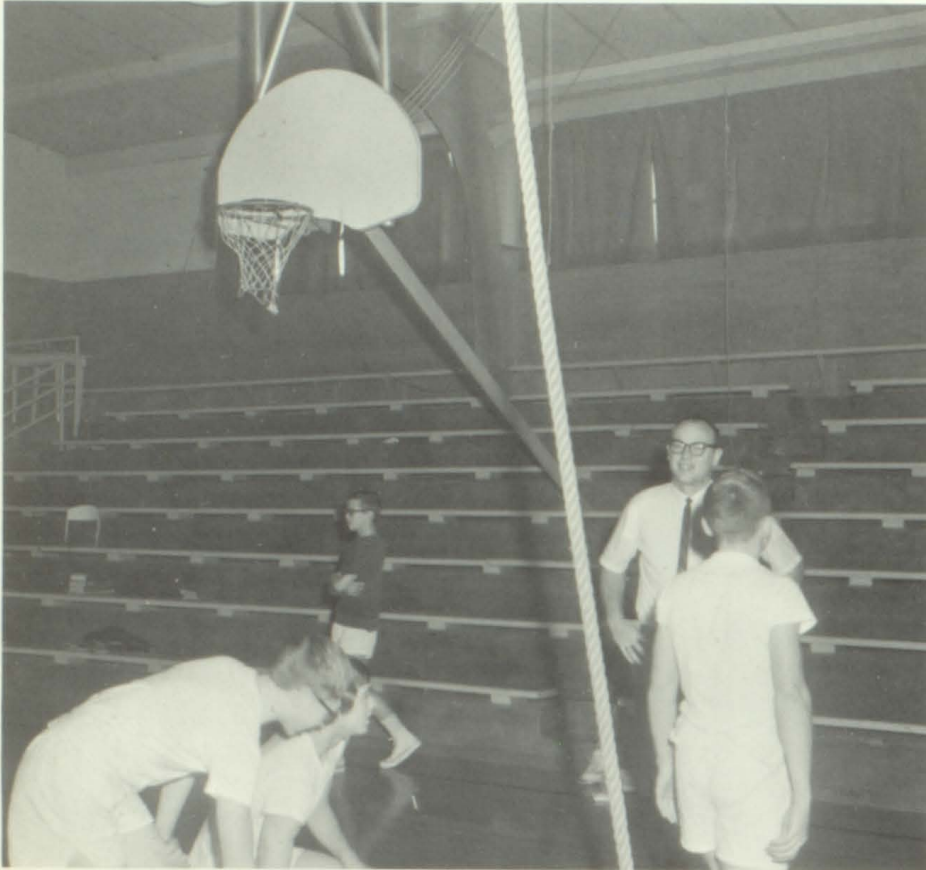

Mr. Applebee watches Tom Henderson and Faye Keller solve problems.

Biology students study the facts and principles of life. Chemistry and science students study the composition and laws of matter. Mathematic students solve problems dealing with numbers. Math and science teachers are Mr. Mills, Miss Mannlein, Mr. Applebee, and Mr. Kinlund.

Are you busy, Mr. Applebee?

Keeping Fit With Physical Education

Are you having problems, Coach?

Boys' physical education is taught by Mr. Applebee and Mr. Mote. The boys participate in a variety of sports throughout the school year. Intramurals is offered to all boys during home room period in the morning twice a week.

Watch your step, girls.

The girls meet outdoors for class.

Miss Eisiminger teaches girls' physical education. The girls participate in sports both indoors and outdoors during the school year. Intramurals is also offered to all girls twice a week during home room period.

Art Develops Skills

Speech and Debate Highly Successful

The speech and debate classes have been very busy this past year. Instructor, Mrs. Schoen, teaches Speech I and II. Outside activities for Speech I and II are entries in speech contests, invitational, league, district and state. This year contestants entered Oberlin and Larned invitational tournaments. Of eleven entries at the tournament at Oberlin, six students made the final round. At Larned Ellis secured ten I's four II's and one III. EHS entrants won the league contest at Wakeeney. Gordon Merritt was nominated for best actor and the one-act play was nominated for the best play. The contestants came home with fourteen I's and one II. Ellis sent twelve students to state speech contest. They captured seven I's and five II's.

During first semester, Speech II studied debate. They sent students to six tournaments. The following schedule is the win-loss record.

Wakeeney 4-0
Scott City 4-6
Hoxie 3-7

Hays 3-7
Ellenwood 3-7

Languages Makes For Easier Communication

Four years of English are required at Ellis High School. Grammar is taught first semester. Second semester the students study literature. Miss Noyes teaches English I and reading. English II and IV are taught by Miss Befort. Mrs. Hall teaches English III.

Spanish is taught by Miss Mannlein. Two years of Spanish were offered this year. The students work in the classroom as well as the Spanish laboratory.

Norbert Fisher and Dale Keller are at work in the "ag. shop".

Ag and Shop Prepare Boys For Future Life

Vo-ag. boys meet for class.

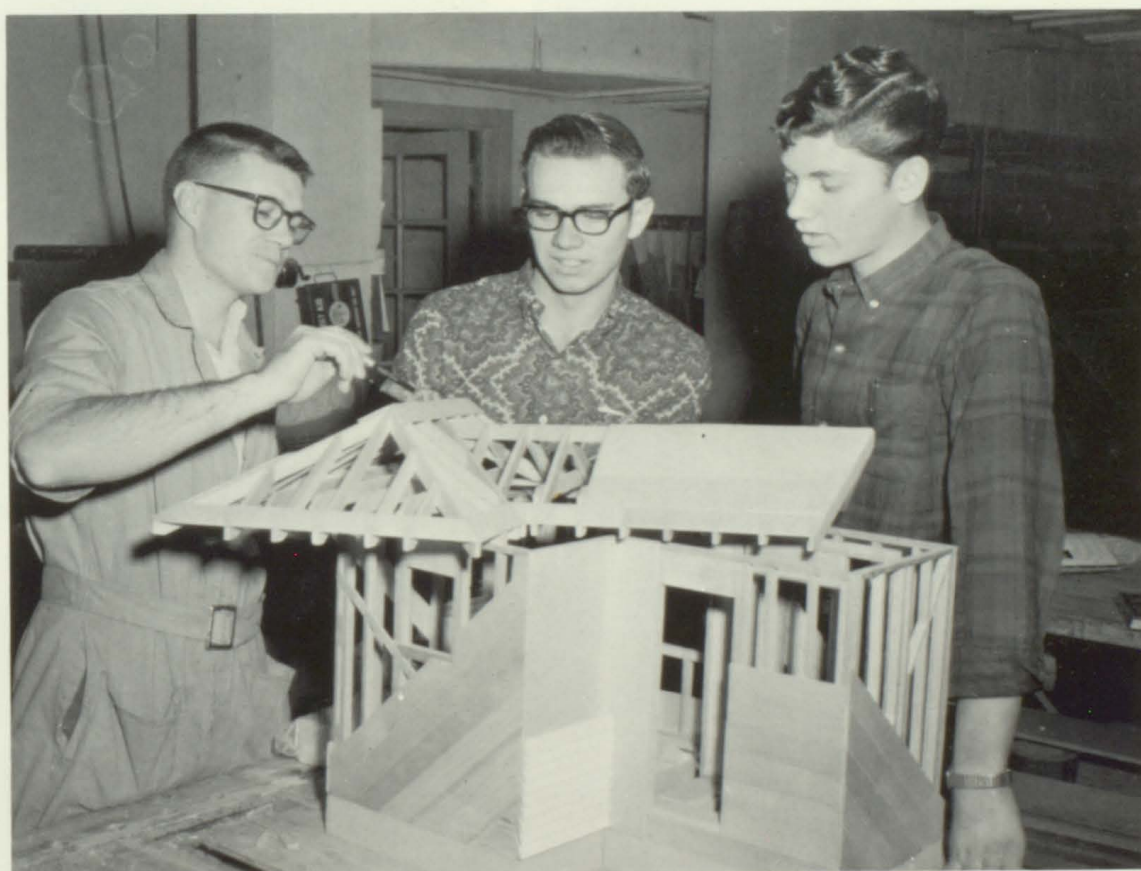

Vocational agriculture teaches boys about farming. In general shop, the boys do various things. They weld, work on motors, and work on electrical appliances. The boys taking these courses learn better ways of farming, crop production, and livestock. Mr. Jones teaches agriculture and shop.

Industrial Arts Provide Practical Experience

In woodworking class the boys learn to develop their skills. Before a boy can take woodworking, he must take a year of mechanical drawing. This enables him to draw his own plans. Mr. Nollette teaches these two classes.

Darrell Keller sands his gun rack.

Mr. Nollette points out different parts of the model house to Verlin Weber and Leon Pfeifer.

Homemaking Class Learns Many Skills

Mrs. Scott teaches vocational homemaking classes. She teaches Home Economics I, II, III, and family living. Various areas are studied in these classes. Some of these are foods, clothing, child care, etiquette, and other areas.

Mrs. Scott lectures to the class.

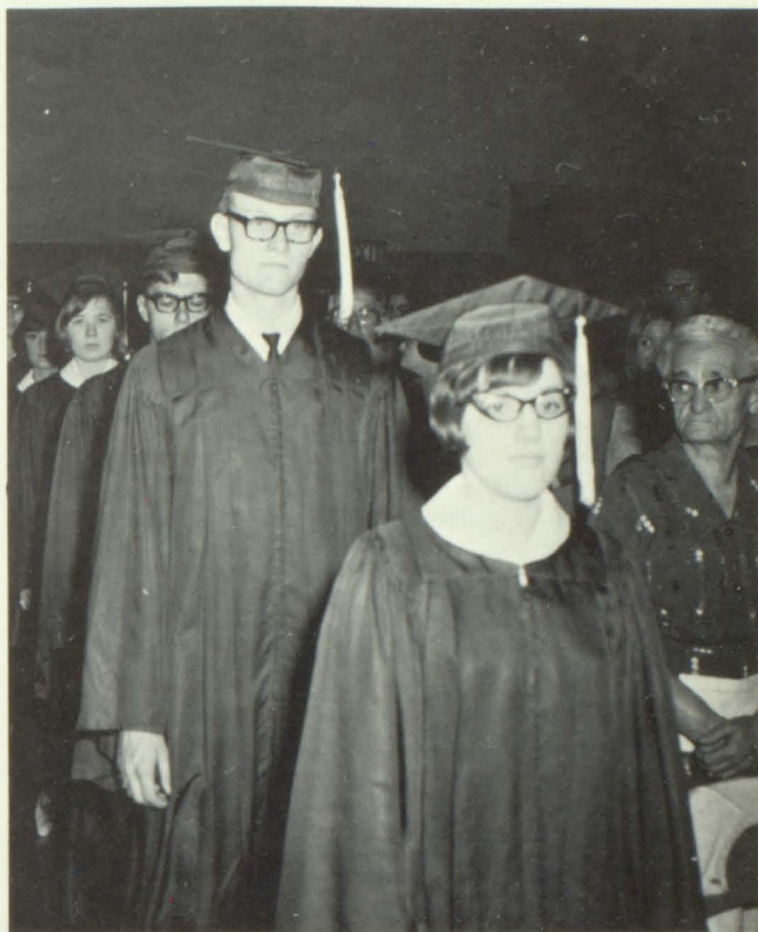

The girls wait for the bell to ring after cleaning the kitchen.

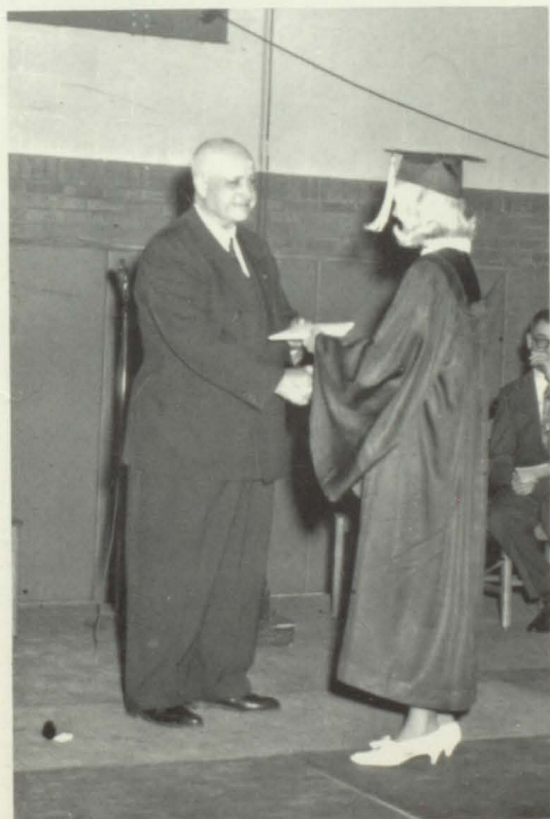

Out of the Quiet Harbor into the Billowy Sea

On May 14, 1967, Baccalaureate was held at Ellis High School. The seniors marched in and were seated alphabetically. The invocation and the benediction were given by Rev. Katt. Rev. Norman Nelson was the speaker. Two selections were sung by the Choralettes.

Fifty-three seniors graduated from Ellis High School on May 18, 1967. Rev. Norman Nelson gave the invocation and the benediction. Chorale sang "Walk On, Walk On." The commencement address was given by Mr. Ralph Huffman. Mr. Fitzgerald gave special honors to the valedictorian, Robert Lang, and to the salutatorian, Sheri Robertson. Presentation of the class was given by Mr. Bray. Dr. Surface presented the diplomas to the seniors. There were seventeen seniors graduating on the honor roll. The seniors then marched out of EHS into a new world of their own.

Kayettes — Largest Club in EHS

The Kansas Association for youth sponsors an organization for girls called "Kayettes". In Ellis most of the girls in the high school belong to this club. Kayettes is a service organization, but it also has social events. The club collects for UNICEF and cerebral palsy. When the girl joining Kayettes pays her dues, she is put into a special team. All together there are six different teams containing about fifteen girls each. The teams are identified by the colors which they were given. The Kayettes sponsor a dance every year for the Kayette and her date.

Queen Bonnie reigns over 1966 Homecoming game and dance

E.H.S.'s annual Homecoming was held on October 28, 1966. The afternoon parade featured the different classes and organizations displaying their colorful floats. First place was won by the Junior class. In a pre-game ceremony Alan Hays crowned Bonnie Clotfelter to reign over the Homecoming activities. Royal attendants were Clarinda Schoenthaler, Ken Smith, Sherilyn Robertson, and Jim Schoenthaler. Kathy and Dean Katt presented flowers to the queen and her attendants. The Homecoming festivities were dampened by the Railer loss to Hill City 27-0. The "Blue Bonics" furnished the music for the dance which followed the game.

Kayette Sno-Ball Was Event of the Year

"Wonderland by Night" was the 1966 theme for the annual Sno-Ball dance which was held December 10. It was sponsored by the Kayette organization. During intermission Miss Linda Jacques was crowned Sno-Ball queen by king, Stanley Bittel. The king and queen's attendants were Kenny Smith, Barbara Fisher, Dean Gaschler, and Libby Fisher. Servers for the dance were Susan Clotfelter, Susan Schmidt, Nancy Niernberger, and Lora Lee Daily.

The boys and their dates spent the evening in the decorated gymnasium, dancing to the music of "The Tempests".

Railers Have Unsuccessful Season 2-2-4

The 1966 Railroader Football Season began on a cold and balmy night against the LaCrosse Leopards in which Ellis won its first of the two victories for the season. The season record was 2-2-4. The Railroaders were privileged to play the Victoria Knights, the number one team in state class-B ratings.

The Railroaders played consistently the first half of the season, but had their misfortunes the second half of the season to lose the last four games.

Head Coach--Jim Applebee

The season was highlighted by four seniors winning honors on the all league and second team honors. The first team members were Ken Smith, end and Jim Schoenthaler, center. Second team members were Alan Hays, back and Norm Mickelson, tackle.

Railers Take Second In MCL Action

Coach Mote gives Town Weber and Darrell Smith a few pointers.

The EHS Railroaders opened the 1966-67 basketball season against the Hays High Indians at Ellis, Dec. 3, 1966. The Railers five finished second in league play. Led by four seniors, this year's team accomplished a feat considered near impossible by defeating the St. Joseph Cadets twice in one season.

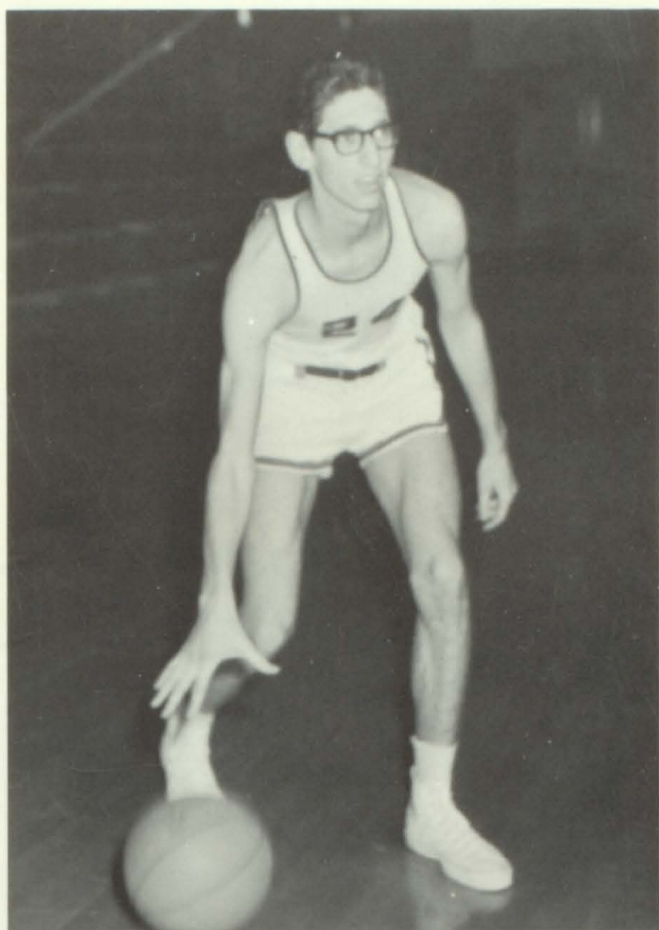

The Railers placed Tom Weber and Darrell Smith on the All-tourney league team. Darrell Smith was also chosen for the Northwest All-area team.

The leading men for the Ellis squad were Bill Mallory, Eugene Weimer, Ken Smith and Tom Weber. These players led the team to a highly successful season.

Three Win Top Honors In Mid-Continent League

For their first year of wrestling, the Railers proved to be rather remarkable. As was expected, the team as a whole did not have a winning season; but they steadily improved throughout the season.

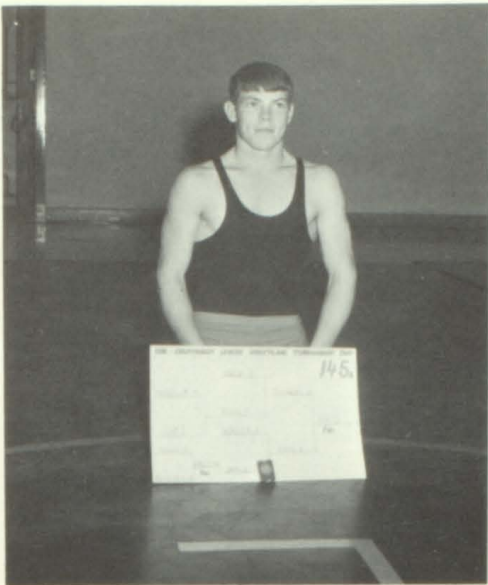

The peak of the season was when Alan Hays, Ken (The Beast) Fisher, and Dale Keller placed first in the league wrestling tournament. Hays then placed second in district while Fisher capped third.

Ellis was one of two schools that represented the Mid-Continent League at the District Wrestling tournament at Kingsley, Kansas. Hays and Fisher went on to the Regional Wrestling tournament at Goodland, Kansas to finish the season.

Ellis Places Two Men At State Meet

The Ellis track team had a very successful season by winning the MCL championship for the second straight season. The Railers also won the LaCrosse Invitational for the second year and took second at the Fort Hays Relays. The Cindermen placed tenth at the State Indoor Meet.

Jim Mallory broke school records in the 220 and the 440, and Norm Mickelson broke the record in the shot put. Leading the track team to success were five seniors: Ken Smith, Tom Weber, Alan Hays, Bob Lang, and Norm Mickelson.

The high point of the 1967 track season was when two athletes, Jim Mallory and Norm Mickelson, went to the State track meet at Salina. Norm Mickelson placed seventh at the State meet.
