Things in our lives fit and coincide like pieces of a puzzle. Our high school years are not exempt. Pieces of life's puzzle come as messages in high school, and no matter whether the message is learned, heard, or said, there is always a "Message in the Making."

Never Again . . .

Never again will we, the class of 1972, return to EHS as part of the student body. Looking back on four years of high school, we see the many things we have accomplished. The past is finished. We hated it, loved it, but in the end made it through.

As new encounters call, the Senior Class of 1972 turns to face a new adventure and challenge: the future.

"There are roaring rivers to cross . . ."

Although the Juniors are almost through, they still have rivers to cross, and bridges to build, and oats to sow as they grow.

The Junior class has worked to achieve goals which were set for the 1971-72 year. They have achieved these goals and will continue to strive toward their senior year.

As the Sophomores end their second year at EHS everything is beginning to fall into place. High school is no longer an the hard ride to success.

The road ahead will be long and dusty,

Away They Go . . .

Although the first contact with life may have been upsetting, the freshmen at EHS have weathered it all. From the first time they lost their way, to the final six weeks, the freshmen grew and changed. But most important of all they began their high school years with a sizzling start.

Head Coach, Jim Lambert

A season like ours has many highlights and low points. Who can forget the elation of the LaCrosse victory or the great Homecoming effort against Stockton? Those who were there will always remember the stirring comeback and unbearable tension of the double-overtime win at Lenora.

We gained something from this season. We got a lot of pride, we earned a little confidence, and we look to the future with enthusiasm and the knowledge that the young men of EHS can meet a tough situation and emerge victorious.

-Jim Lambert

The Head Coach

The Head Coach paces up and down,
His face contorted in a frown;
A nervous wreck who fears the worse,
He bows his head and breathes a curse,
Then shakes his fist and kicks the dirt
And rips the collar off his shirt;
If now it seems like he's upset,
Just wait-the game's not started yet. - Mad Mag.

Nine Seniors played their last football game for EHS in the double-overtime win against Lenora. Never again will they wear the orange and black on the football field. In the coming years, they can replay the heartbreaking loss to Wakeeney and the jubilation and sense of accomplishment of Lenora. But if they gave 100% in all of their games in their high school years, they can look back on them with pride not regret.

Railer's New Motto . . .

▲ Railer defense gives Stockton all they wanted.

▲ Dave Fisher does his job.

▲ Jeff Augustine makes one of his many catches.

Soph. Stan Honas runs for the flag. ►

▲ EHS offense rolls on.

▲ EHS defense gets ready.

▲ Bob Haneke makes a good catch.

▲ Who's got the ball?

Hit — Hit — Hustle!

Pass me the Right Guard !!

Whitey, take a lap and think about it !!

Practice is . . .
the foundation for each EHS football game. Here, mistakes are corrected and mistakes for the coming game are averted. For the most part, football practices are hard work, but even the toughest of practices have their humorous moments.

Railers Gain Experience

With only two Seniors in the line-up, the Railers hustled their way to a second-place tie in tough M.C.L. action. Sporting an over-all record of 9-12, the future looks bright. With the valuable experience and lessons learned in play this year, the Railers should be the pride of the league next year.

Railers Come Through to Surprise M.C.L.

After being picked to finish fifth in a pre-season poll, the 1971-72 Railroaders' basketball team was the surprise of the league, as they finished in a second place tie with a 4-2 record.

Our only two seniors, Greg Mickelson and Dave Fisher, are to be commended for the leadership and enthusiasm they displayed throughout the season. These two young men will be missed by our B-B team and we wish them the best of luck in the future.

"B"-Team Readies for Varsity Play

The Jr. Varsity earned a respectable 4 - 13 record in "B"-Team competition this year. With some bright prospects popping up and showing their talents early, the J.V.'s captured a second place trophy at the Jetmore Tourney. The preparation for varsity play was successful, in terms of experience gained.

With the challenge of a big switch from Jr. High to high school competition facing them, the F-osh compiled a good 5 - 10 record. Along with this was a second place finish in the Ellis Frosh Invitational Tourney. They will move up to the Jr. Varsity team next year and keep the Railers well equipped with good manpower.

Railers in the Running

With a shortage of personnel to make a great track team this year, the RAILERS did the next best thing by competing for individual honors. Seven seniors, three juniors, two sophs., and five freshmen worked hard and earned the Railers a sixth place at the M.C.L. track meet. The coaches were proud of each Railer and the award they received during the year.

Attending the Regional meet at Meade, G. Geist (Jav.), J. Wolf (Pole Vault) and E. Collins (mile), the boys made a fine representation of the Railers.

This year, under the supervision of Coach Schoen, the Boys' Golf team participated in competition with some of the best teams in the state. Although they weren't always found on the winners list, they put up a good fight. With experienced golfers such as George Fisher, Greg Gabel, and Dave Fisher, the Railers maintained an outstanding reputation on the golf course.

"Fore" We're Comin' Thru . . .

"The girls had a fine year competing against much larger schools during the season. They swept the season opener - a duel at Palco - in all divisions. At the Great Bend Invitational, Pat and Linda brought home the 2-girl championship defeating Great Bend, Hutchinson, Pratt, Coldwater, and Claflin. In the Hutchinson meet our girls finished in a tie with Winfield for 5th, defeating Emporia, Wichita Kapaun, and Coldwater. The 4-girl team finished in 7th place. Ellis then defeated Sacred Heart of Salina in all divisions in a dual at Salina. The season closed with the annual Ellis Invitational which was won by Great Bend." The girls made many friends during the year, and enjoyed it all the way through.

Girls' Track Team Strikes Again!

The girls' 1972 track team ended the season with a total of 15 medals. The medals, with the exception of 1, were won at the M.C.L. track meet at Stockton. The girls competed in 4 large meets with some of the best competition in the state. Even though they didn't place 1st, 2nd, or 3rd in these meets, they competed very well and improved throughout the season.

Athletes Are Honored

At the annual Athletic Banquet, held on April 24, guest speaker Gene Bissell, who is director of athletics and football coach at Kansas Wesleyan University, kept the audience on its toes while he spoke of the three "D's" that make up a great athlete. Preceding his talk, President of the Chamber of Commerce, Darwin Kingsley, presented Greg Mickelson the Outstanding Athlete award for his accomplishments throughout his high school career.

As is tradition, after the delicious meal, each participating athlete was introduced by his respective coaches. ## "Youth With a Purpose"

The active members of the Ellis FFA Chapter participated in many activities in the year of 1971-72. The pancake feed, slave sale, area judging contests, Barnwarmer and the FFA Banquet kept the boys enthused and busy. Added to these accomplishments is the addition of proclaiming a FFA Week in Ellis and working with the Fair Board in preparing for the Ellis Junior Free Fair.

Talents for the Future

The E.H.S. school system, in order to prepare students with a proper background, offers a varied vocational program. Business courses are available in such classes as typing, bookkeeping and shorthand while vocational classes such as mechanical drawing, woodworking and agriculture prepare us for the future.

IRENE KROEGER: Typing I, Shorthand and Bookkeeping.

JUNE GLANTZ: Consumer Math, Business Math and Typing II.

RON MILLS: Woodworking and Mechanical Drawing. ►

Isn't history fun?

Past and Present

So that we are conscious of the political affairs and economic situations as well as the history of our country, E.H.S. offers helpful courses to awaken us to the history and current affairs of our environment.

JIM LAMBERT: American History and World History.

TOM BOWEN: Constitution and International Relations.

RICH VAN WINKLE: Art.

JOHN SIMPSON: Band.

Talent Shows in E.H.S.

Besides learning the basics of high school life, E.H.S. offers other classes to add to the enjoyment of the students. With our talented musicians and artists, we are proud to say the arts are part of our curriculum.

REDONDA BAUGH: Vocal Music.

VICKI HOOPER: English II and IV.

English and Speech

Make time for a young person . . .
Let your kindness come out . . .
Erase worry and fear of the unknown . . .
Have some fun!

From a therapeutic standpoint you will find that if the above is used according to the recommended dosage, that you will suddenly find "It's still a beautiful world."

Student Life

this year has seen plenty of action - both in work and play. As shown in these few candid, school-time never had a dull moment.

See what we mean?

Ping-Pong and Chess What a Match!!

The gallery observes a hot game.

Mr. Schoen displays good concentration as he returns a serve.

Mr. Bowen works hard at his game of ping-pong!!

Throughout the year, a continuous Chess tournament kept several of the students occupied. Although no winner was officially determined, each contestant enjoyed himself completely. Later on in the year, two table tennis sets were placed in the lunch room, and the indoor athletes were at it again. As seen, each game required skill and concentration, however, whenever anyone played, it was plain fun!

Whitey Kohl and Jeff Augustine (L) seem to have just begun another match.

Look quick, this is the only time you'll ever see Gary working so hard!

(L) Kent Malinowsky makes the winning move in Mr. Lambert's study hall.

(Top) Wanda D. and Sue M. hash over last night's fun.

(R) Now look, Kent.

(Bottom) The Senior boys lend a helping hand with the new field.

▲ Hey, Dave, isn't that a little heavy on the pepper?!

(L) Mrs. Krehbiel just can't resist a good pose.

Students survey fire damage in Don Ellis' car behind the school house.

These teachers! What will they come up with next?

In Memory of Glen Gerard Gottschalk

A classmate, teammate, student, friend, and brother, Glen G. Gottschalk, was fatally wounded in December of 1971 while on a local hunting trip.

He attended E.H.S. for three semesters and in that time participated in football, wrestling, and F.F.A.

Survived by eight brothers and sisters and his parents, Glen would have been a graduate of the class of 1974.

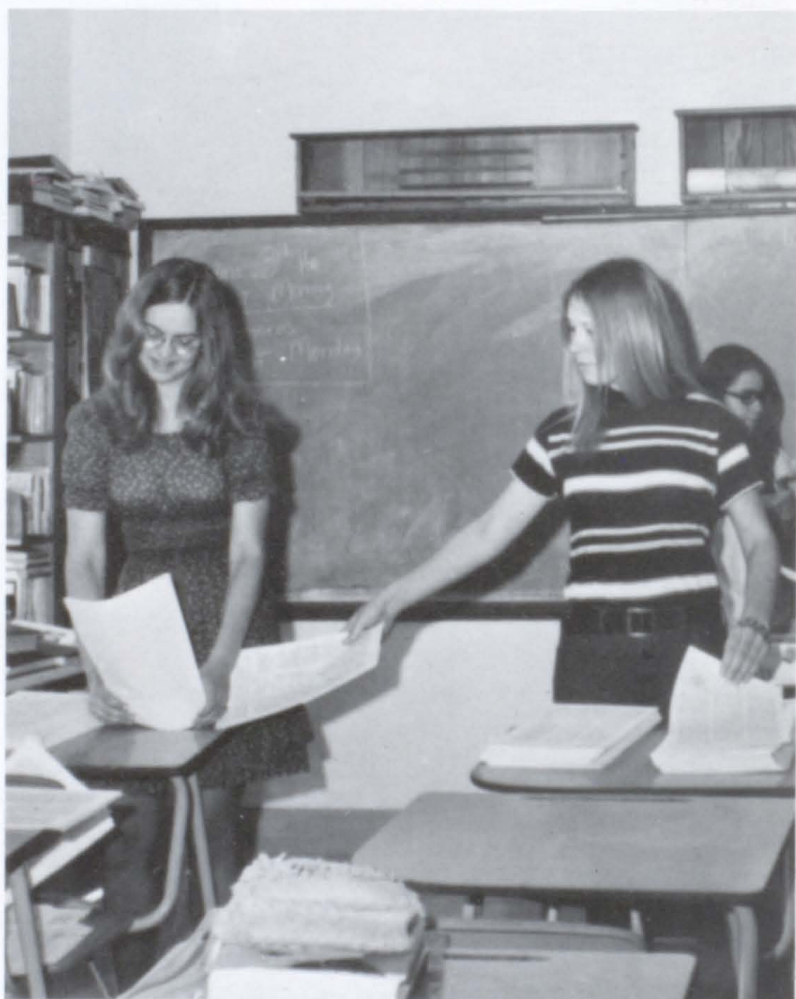

Standing - (L-R) S. Bittel, W. Gabel, P. Henderson, D. Pfeifer, M. Boschowitzki and D. Huck. Sitting - (L-R) M. Sherfick, W. Deutscher, C. Larsen, V. Kohl and L. Kinderknecht.

Doing the Newspaper Thing!

Guided by the advise of Editor Vicki Kohl and Assistant Editor Wanda Gabel, the Newspaper staff provided the students of Ellis High School with a copy of the Railroad-er every two weeks.

What story are they writing? ▲

The chores of putting it all together. ▲

Life of the Yearbook

Passing through the busy and relaxing times the Yearbook staff worked continuously during the school year. The members, under the direction of Pat Mallory, Editor, and Susan Honas, Assistant Editor, went through the stages of completing the 1972 Yearbook. Photographer for the Railroader was Mitch Homburg and the business affairs were conducted by Sue Mills and Sara Ward.

▲Type! Type! Type! That's all I ever do.

Through many trials and tribulations, our annual has finally made its way to print. It is only fitting that before our yearbook draws to a close, we give recognition to those who made our publication possible. For assistance in photography, thanks go to Mr. Ben Kubo and Mr. Carl Kubo, both of the ELLIS REVIEW, whose pictures added so much to our sports section; and Mr. Floyd Fischgrabe, who did a fine job on the group shots we needed to make our annual complete. We would like to thank the businessmen whose sponsorship and financial assistance helped make our yearbook successful. And special appreciation goes to our advisor, Mrs. Vicki Krehbiel, whose guidance got us through the rough spots. Thank you all very much.

It seems realistic to conclude that although high school is a time of message making, the full scope of our life's message is just begun.

The messages in high school form only a base for the message of peace, happiness, and victory which we all must achieve if we are to survive.
