Pennsville School District

September 2017

SEPTEMBER 2017

The Main Dish

The food, always the star of the show, had competition this month as our guests, returning from summer vacation, were welcomed back to a brand new look in the high school's student restaurant. New signs and a fresh coat of paint are the big changes, but there were lots of small changes, too.

As they say, a picture is worth a thousand words....

Prepared by Jim with the assistance of Chef Jamie

Behind the Scenes:

An opening employee meeting was held to kick off the school year. This meeting is held to review the regulations of the National School Lunch Program, cover essential training topics, discuss the expectations of Metz Culinary Management and the school district, and to ensure everyone is ready for the start of another successful school year in the food service department!

All of our staff have experienced the GREAT training. Greet, Respect, Eye contact, Anticipate needs, Thank: every guest, every time.

Events & Happenings

New morning coffee program at the high school, offering Green Mountain Coffee.

To provide the freshest product possible to our guests, we have eliminated the chute used for burgers and chicken patties. Guest's sandwiches are now made fresh to order, with the toppings of their choice.

Our People

We say welcome back to many familiar faces in the kitchens this year, and hello to some new ones.

The PMHS team is led by new head cook, Jim Graziano, who brings many years of culinary experience. Returning to the high school team this year are Tiffany, for a 6th year and Diana, our rock and roll grandma, along with Ginnie, from our middle school. New to our team are also Jaime Davis, who definitely embodies the “Zip” attribute and Stephanie Stewart, the smiling face of our revamped deli and salad station.

The middle school team is led by Tina Toomey, who is going into her fourth year with Metz. Denise and Miss Sue are returning for their 6th and 9th years to our team. Sue likes to remind everyone that she is the oldest one here and can work circles around anyone. Tammy joins the middle school team, from the Central Park kitchen, for her second year. Last, and certainly not least, we have Cindy Wertman, returning for her 20th year!!

Penn Beach’s team, led by Sue Biernacki, keeps all the same friendly faces. Jing Ryder begins her 7th year with the Pennsville team, and Elaine is back for her third year.

Central Park welcomes new-to-Central Park-but-not-to-Metz, head cook, Karen Eubanks and dish washer Cristina. We say hello again to Terry We bid a sad farewell to Kathy Benecke, who had to leave to attend family matters after 15 years of dedicated service.

Valley Park also keeps the same friendly team, led by Kathy Jennings, a 33 year teammate! Maria and Carolyn round out our group. These three do a fantastic job serving our youngest guests in the district.

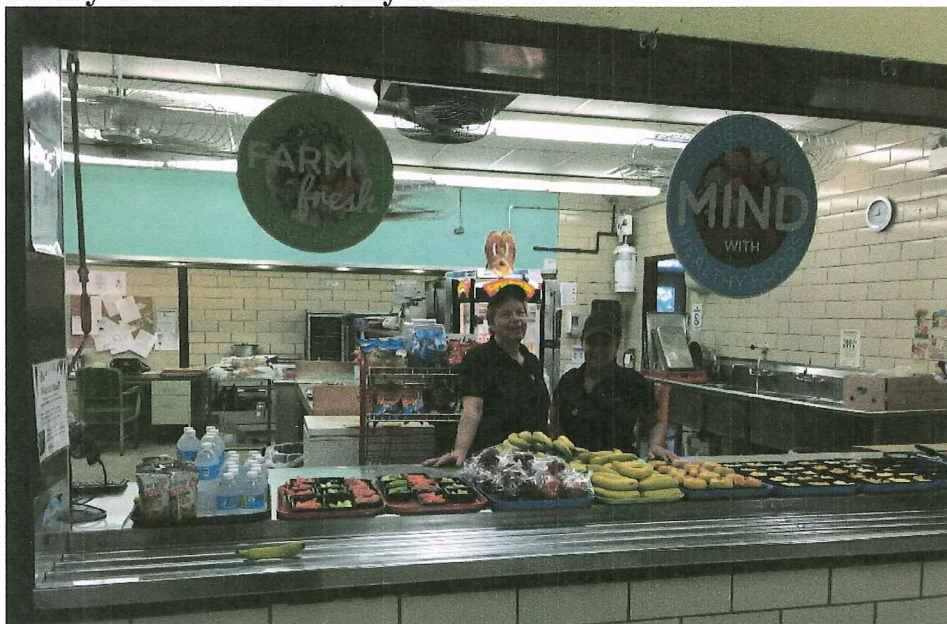

Building Happenings

All the buildings in the district received updated signage over the summer break.

What's Next

October's menu is making veggies the star of the show! With tasty new additions like Mix Grilled Veggies, Roasted Spaghetti Squash, and Rosemary Roasted Beets & Carrots we hope to introduce a new favorite to our guest's taste buds.
