Please complete your essay on a separate sheet of paper either typed or handwritten in blue or black ink. Attach your completed essay to the application upon submission.

Scholarship applications are reviewed for completeness and ability to follow the provided instructions. The essay is scored by a community-based selection committee which will focus on the following factors: formatting requirements, grammar and direct essay response. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Essay Prompt:

Nelson Mandela once said, "Education is the most powerful weapon which you can use to change the world". And it was Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. who said the true goal of education: "intelligence plus character".

In an essay of no more than 500-words, or a video submission of 1-2 minutes, tell us how your pursuit of higher education will help you overcome the challenges you've faced, including but not limited to, the impact of gun violence on your world. What are some ways you plan to use your education to impact positive change in your community and the lives of others?
