PUBLIC COMMENT

Karen Herald, Waynesboro – Questioned the dress code changes. Last year's high school handbook specifically banned the display of a confederate flag or clothing, etc. but this year's dress code does not mention the banning of the confederate flag. She wanted to know if the display of the confederate flag is still banned, and why the change in the wording of the dress code.

Discuss/Act on Game Personnel Clearances

It has recently come to the attention of the administration that Game Personnel are required to have clearances. Eighteen individuals who are already employed as game personnel do not have these clearances. Costs of the clearances are listed below.

PA State Police Criminal Clearance	$10.00
PA Child Abuse Clearance	$10.00
FBI Clearance	$28.75
Total	$48.75 x 18 = $877.50

The administration is recommending the district reimburse the eighteen individuals already employed for the cost of obtaining the necessary clearances after they have been submitted to the district.

Individuals hired for game personnel in the future will be responsible for obtaining these clearances at their own expense.

On a Lemley/Bachtell motion and roll call listed, the Board of School Directors approved reimbursement of the costs of clearances obtained by eighteen individuals already employed as game personnel as presented.
