News from TSA

By: Brodie & Abby

The week of Oct 4-8 was National TSA week. This is the week that allows TSA members of each chapter to create awareness of the Technology Student Association in their school and community, and to showcase your activities and accomplishments. National TSA Week is also about TSA student members and the hard work TSA chapters are doing while "learning to lead in a technical world." Each day members were given a theme which were: My Chapter Monday (share the memories or accomplishments of your TSA Chapter), Team TSA Tuesday (post a picture of you and a friend you've made in TSA; it could be someone miles away or within your chapter), Throwback Thursday (post a favorite TSA photo of you and/or your chapter from your early years in TSA), Fashion Friday (show off your TSA fashion and post a picture of you in official TSA attire)

Rice Krispie Treat Pumpkins by: Jenna R.

- Rice Krispies
- Butter
- Marshmallows
- Food colouring (Orange)
- Mini tootsie roll's
- Green M&M's

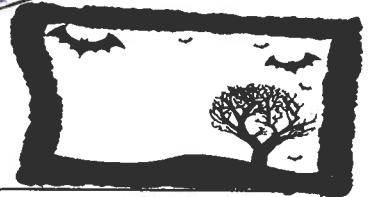

In a large pot over low heat, melt the butter. Add the marshmallows and stir until completely melted. Remove from the heat. Add approximately 16 drops of orange liquid food coloring. Mix well. Add the Rice Krispies and quickly stir to combine. Coat both sides of your hands with a generous amount of cooking oil, scoop a handful of the mixture in to your hands and roll the Rice Krispie mixture into balls. Set on parchment paper. Add oil to your hands before rolling each pumpkin ball. While the balls are still warm, gently press a Tootsie Roll into the top of each pumpkin for the stem. Add a green M&M beside it as the leaf.

Spooky Stories from: Eli and Cailynn

The Phone

A couple of months ago, my friend's cousin (a single mother) bought a new cell phone. After a long day of work, she came home, placed her phone on the counter, and went watch to TV; her son came to her and asked if he could play with her new phone. She told him not to call anyone or mess with text messages, and he agreed.

At around 11:20, she was drowsy, so she decided to tuck her son in and go to bed. She walked to his room and saw that he wasn't there. She then ran over to her room to find him sleeping on her bed with the phone in his hand.

Relieved, she picked her phone back up from his hand to inspect it. Browsing through it, she noticed only minor changes such as a new background, banner, etc., but then she opened up her saved pictures. She began deleting the pictures he had taken until only one new picture remained.

When she first saw it, she was in disbelief. It was her son sleeping on her bed, but the picture was taken by someone else above him... and it showed the left half of an elderly woman's face.

The Strange Beach by: Cailynn Woodall

I followed the footprints in the sand. But no matter what I do I can't seem to shake this odd feeling. I feel like somebody's watching me but I don't know where. As I followed the footprints on the abandoned beach I hear something behind me. I quickly turned around but no one was there. Now I am unsure about why I'm here. I normally come here to collect seashells for jewelry but I came because I had an odd feeling. I found footprints on the sand which is weird because I own this land and its private property. Sunday the footprints stopped I was confused because it was in the middle of the beach. "It properly got swept away by the water," I thought to myself. I started to head back to my car. I will come back tomorrow because something doesn't feel right.
