

Good Hope Elementary School
Parent & Family Engagement Policy
2021-2022

Describe how the Local Education Agency will involve parents and family members in jointly developing the local educational agency plan under section 1112, and the development of support and improvement plans under paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 1111(d).

The Federal Program Advisory Council will meet to develop the Parent and Family Engagement Written Policy.

- Conduct scheduled meetings with the Parent Advisory Committee;
- Incorporate parent ideas/suggestions into the LEA Parent and Family Engagement Policy.
- Hold Title I parent meetings and PTO meetings to allow parents to provide input into the policy.
- Invite parents to serve on the school continuous improvement team to help develop and review the continuous improvement plan.
- The committee will review current academic data based on state assessments to determine if the school is meeting accountability models.
- The committee will review results of parent feedback, program evaluations, and achievement data for the annual school review and use these data as needed to modify Parent Family Engagement Policy.

Describe how the Local Education Agency will provide the coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist and build the capacity of all participating schools within the local educational agency in planning and implementing effective parent and family involvement activities to improve student academic achievement and school performance, which may include meaningful consultation with employers, business leaders, and philanthropic organizations, or individuals with expertise in effectively engaging parents and family members in education.

- GHE will follow the district parent and family engagement calendar for school administrators and teachers to assist in developing effective parent and family engagement strategies.
- GHE parents will attend parent and family engagement meetings and provide turnaround training for parents at GHE.
- Update GHE website to include information for parents concerning state tests, community, and school activities.
- Conduct parent and family engagement meetings with administrators and teachers.
- Provide parenting tips via school newsletters and websites.
- Design volunteer opportunities for parents in collaboration with Cullman County Schools.

- Provide effective ways to communicate with parents (such as a Calendar of Events, Text Remind, Video Recordings, or Call-Out system).
- Provide non-English speaking parents with the community liaison contact information.
- Provide opportunities for parents and teachers to coordinate joint efforts to support student and school achievement, encouraging parental input on how educators could best assist their children in achieving educational goals, encouraging parents to serve as trainers of other parents and educators where appropriate, and encouraging joint planning and participation in academic and parental skills training and use of school resources.

Describe how the Local Education Agency will coordinate and integrate parent and family engagement strategies under this part with parent and family engagement strategies, to the extent feasible and appropriate, with other relevant Federal, State, and local laws and programs.

- Distribute academic standards.
- Assist Parents with enrollment through the online registration, InfoSnap.
- Select parents to serve on the Cullman County Schools Federal Programs Advisory Council.

Describe how the Local Education Agency will conduct, with the meaningful involvement of parents and family members, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parent and family engagement policy in improving the academic quality of all schools served under this part, including identifying—

(i) barriers to greater participation by parents in activities authorized by this section (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background)

- The committee will conduct an evaluation of parental engagement with assistance of district personnel.
- Review, evaluate, and revise the Good Hope Elementary Parent and Family Engagement Policy annually.
- The annual parent survey through eProve will be distributed to all stakeholders; The results of the surveys will be analyzed and reported to the stakeholders.
- Recommendations will be brought before the Good Hope Elementary Parent Advisory Committee who will discuss the results and identify trends. This information will be used to revise the GHE Title I Parent and Family Engagement Policy.
- Survey results will be shared with leadership teams.
- Comments of concern, discontent, or disagreement with the current plan should be sent to the Principal.

(ii) the needs of parents and family members to assist with the learning of their children, including engaging with school personnel and teachers

Two parent representatives attend monthly district parent meetings called “Parent Connection” which are recorded and sent to the schools. At these meetings, the district provides training to assist the parents and family members with what is going on in the schools. For example, technology integration. Good Hope Elementary will also provide training at the school for parents to attend. These trainings are conducted by parents, teachers and administrators at the local school.

(iii) strategies to support successful school and family interactions

Good Hope Elementary uses many successful ways to interact with parents either face to face or using technology. The Parent Connection meetings are held monthly and the parents that attend do turnaround training for their individual school. Parents that cannot attend can view the trainings/meetings by going to the schools or district website. Good Hope Elementary has an open door policy for our families to have ongoing interaction.

Describe how the Local Education Agency will use the findings of such evaluation described in the section above (Sec. 1116(2)(D)) to design evidence-based strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary the parent and family engagement policies described in this section.

- An adequate representation of parents will serve on the school continuous improvement team to help develop and review the continuous improvement plan.
- Good Hope Elementary will review current academic data based on state assessments to determine if the school is meeting accountability models.
- Parents will be informed in writing if Good Hope Elementary does not meet accountability requirements.

Describe how the Local Education Agency will involve parents in the activities of the schools served under this part, which may include establishing a parent advisory board comprised of a sufficient number and representative group of parents or family members served by the local educational agency to adequately represent the needs of the population served by such agency for the purposes of developing, revising, and reviewing the parent and family engagement policy.

- Establish a schoolwide LEA Parent Advisory Committee to provide advice on matters related to parental involvement.
- Develop appropriate roles for community-based organizations and business in Parent and Family Engagement Activities.
- Provide reasonable support for parental involvement activities as parents may request.

- Review, evaluate, and revise the School Parent and Family Engagement Policy annually.
- Survey results will be shared with the leadership team.
- Comments of concern, discontent, or disagreement with the current plan should be sent to the Principal.

In order to build capacity for Parent and Family Engagement, the Local Education Agency will ensure effective involvement of parents and will support a partnership among the schools involved, the parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement, the LEA shall:

Describe how it will provide assistance to parents of children served by the school or local educational agency, as appropriate, in understanding such topics as the challenging State academic standards, State and local academic assessments, the requirements of this part, and how to monitor a child's progress and work with educators to improve the achievement of their children.

- Hold parent meetings at Good Hope Elementary so that parents can conduct turnaround meetings that cover topics, strategies, and use of technology in Cullman County Schools.
- Parent Calendar for the 2021-22 school year with training dates.

Describe how the LEA may arrange school meetings at a variety of times, or conduct in-home conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend such conferences at school, in order to maximize parental involvement and participation.

Good Hope Elementary School provides a variety of times and ways for parents to meet. When parents are unable to attend conferences, teachers and administration set up conference calls or use technology to communicate. We have email addresses for all parents at Good Hope Elementary School and we offer different dates and times of meetings to accommodate parents throughout the year. Cullman County also has an PowerSchool Parent Portal so that parents can view their child's grades, discipline, schedule, attendance and information.

Describe how the LEA may adopt and implement model approaches to improving parental involvement.

Cullman County uses the collaboration model for parent and family engagement. This collaboration among parents, educators, and community members. Collaboration occurs through monthly meetings at the district level with training, then turnaround meetings occur at the schools. Collaboration occurs through two-way communication, recognizing parents' strengths, and solving problems together. The district and Good Hope Elementary School is open to exploring new policies, practices, relationships, and attitudes that foster partnering for children's school success.

Describe how the LEA may establish a districtwide parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parental involvement in programs supported under this section.

- Good Hope Elementary School provides a parent or parents from each school to serve on the advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parental involvement in programs. These parents meet monthly at the district level.
- Local schools involve parents in the development and revision of the continuous school improvement plans.

Describe how the LEA may develop appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses in parent involvement activities.
