Ms. Hwang's first grade students love collaborating with their friends during math centers! This week, her students worked on building number sentences with a partner by shaking up the number dice, and using math cubes to show addition! When students collaborate with their math buddies, they use accountable math talk like "I agree with your answer because..." and 'I solved this problem by..." Math is more fun with a buddy!

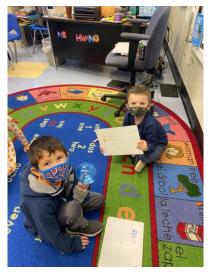

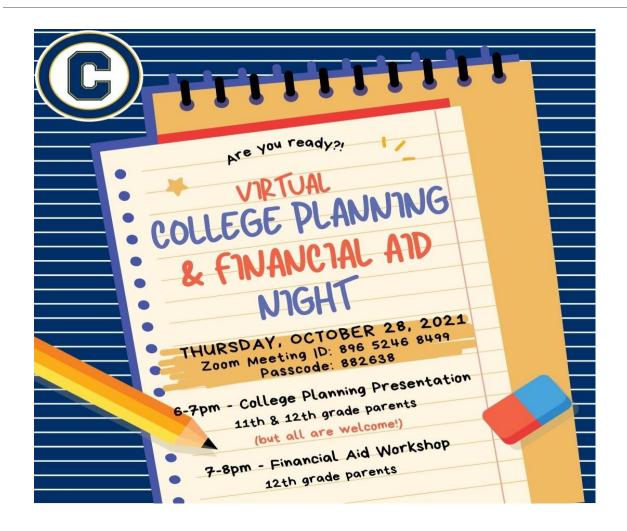

COLLINGSWOOD MIDDLE SCHOOL

MEASURE TWICE, CUT ONCE. The awesome students in Mr. Meyers Tech Ed 8 class demonstrate their safety, creativity, math skills, Growth Mindset, and Grit as all part of their Keepsake Box construction project.

THEATER PROGRAM. The cast of our middle school musical HONK! woke up a little earlier last Saturday to help pick up trash in Knight Park before their morning rehearsal. Thank you to Ben Moore of Everette Wilson Designs as well as musical staff Mr. Hartung, Mr. Gross, and Mrs. Goodall for organizing this great opportunity for our young actors!
