ASVAB. The ASVAB not only serves as the entrance exam for all military branches, but can be a helpful tool in exploring careers you might like. Visit <http://www.asvabprogram.com/> and enter your access code listed on your ASVAB results page.

OCCUPATIONS. Click FYI under “Self Assessment” and take the interest inventory to your strongest interest areas (Realistic, Investigative, Social, Artistic, Enterprising, Conventional).

List your 3 strongest interest areas.

Click on “CCU- Find” to explore career in your 2 highest interest areas. Next use the “O*NET Online” and “Occupational Outlook Handbook” links for more information about these careers. If you do not like these tools, complete the interest inventory on your OhioMeansJobs account. It can be completed again, even if you have already done it in earlier grades.

List 3 occupations that interest you and the education (example: college or technical school) you would need to attain a employment for each occupation.
