83	Yes - Placing an emphasis on creating inclusive education settings for children with IEPs. Research shows inclusive settings benefit all students, help break down stereotypes while increasing the likelihood of meeting IEP goals and promoting independence. These practices also reduce the need for hiring aides as special education services should be integrated in the typical classroom setting. Peer support systems can be leveraged as well as classroom zones to support inclusivity. Please look into methods and professional development around this.	11/7/2022 2:47 PM
