

Participate in an Online Research Study

Providing Resource Information to Parents of Adolescents with Intellectual/Developmental disabilities (ID/DD) or Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) Transitioning to Adulthood

Study Purpose:

- Increase parent knowledge of transition services and resources in the state of Georgia
- Empower families with the knowledge needed to prepare and advocate for their child's transition to adulthood
- Increase access to transition-related resources and services for individuals with disabilities

Who's eligible? Parents or guardians of adolescents (between the ages of 12-22) with intellectual or developmental disabilities (ID/DD) or autism spectrum disorder (ASD)

What's involved?

- Provide background information such as gender, race, ethnicity, language status, education, and employment.
- Complete questionnaires at the beginning and end of the training.
- Receive electronic resource packet.
- Attend a 2-hour virtual session led by experts.

Compensation & Benefits

- All training participants will be eligible to win in a raffle to win an Amazon gift card. Anyone may enter this raffle.
- Training and education will aid as you help your child transition to adulthood.

Interested? More questions? Click the link or scan the QR code to answer this survey to see if you're eligible to participate.

Contact Jessica Watson (jwatson63@student.gsu.edu)

This study has been approved by the Georgia State University Institutional Review Board (IRB).
IRB Number: H22205. Reference Number: 367449

The purpose of this training is to increase parents', guardians' and family members' knowledge of transition-related services and resources in the state of Georgia.