APPLICATION FEE WAIVERS

WHO ACCEPTS FEE WAIVERS?

Most two-year and many four-year colleges are free to apply to, so no fee waiver is needed. Many four-year colleges that do have an application fee will accept the ACT, College Board, and/or NACAC fee waiver for students who meet the criteria (more information on that below). For these colleges, many will list fee waiver as a payment option on the admissions application. Check with your school counselor to see if the college(s) you plan to apply to charge a fee and, if so, whether they accept fee waivers from eligible students.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Typically, fee waivers are available to students for whom the college application fees would create a financial burden or hardship. Students who were eligible for fee waivers to college entrance exams, such as the ACT or SAT, are usually also eligible for college application fee waivers.
