

FILLMORE CENTRAL
2023-2024 PERSONAL FINANCE SYLLABUS
Dual Credit BUSAD 1800 (Wesleyan)

Instructor: Mrs. Patterson

E-mail: brittney.patterson@fillmorecentral.org

Available consultation times: Before school, planning period first hour, or after school by appointment.

COURSE OF STUDY

This semester-length course will include the following units that are culminated either with tests or major projects.

1. Financial Literacy
2. Protecting your Finances
3. Managing your spending
4. Purchasing and protecting your assets
5. Exploring Economics
6. Preparing for your career

FINAL:

Financial Literacy Final Project

GRADING:

Students will be graded on daily work, major projects, and tests as follows:

SCALE:

Your grade will be broken down by the following categories:

- | | |
|--------------------------|-----|
| • Daily work | 20% |
| • Tests/Quizzes/Projects | 60% |
| • Final | 20% |

CLASSROOM EXPECTATIONS:

1. Enter the room prepared for class by having your book, laptop, and other necessary materials.
2. Check the board for the day's agenda. Turn in any work you need to and begin work on the "bell ringer" or other activity stated.
3. Be a courteous, productive student. Be in your assigned seat on time. Use class time productively.
4. This is a required semester class with a high degree of expectations. You may not be allowed to leave class to use the restroom, go to your locker, or get a drink. Class will stay on task right up to the bell.
5. It will be announced when laptops are to be used for classroom work. They are not to be open during discussion time. Students who insist on using their computers inappropriately during class will be asked to leave them with the teacher until class ends. Cell phones should be put away in the student's book bag.