Dear Parent/Guardian:

The No Child Left Behind Act, a federal law, requires secondary schools to provide student names, addresses and telephone numbers to both military recruiters and institutions of higher education, upon request. However, parents/legal guardians and secondary students do have the right to request that the school not release such information without prior written consent.

The purpose of this notice is to inform you of the law and to provide an opportunity for parents/guardians and/or secondary students to request that such information not be released to either military recruiters or institutions of higher education. To prevent the release of information, the high school must receive a form signed by a parent/guardian and/or the secondary student. If the school does not receive a signed form, we will be required by federal law to disclose the student's name, address and telephone number to military recruiters and institutions of higher education that request this information.

Please return this form to the high school guidance office by September 15th or within thirty days of enrollment, whichever is later. A parent/guardian and/or student may return a form after the deadline, but please understand that until this form is received, there is a possibility that military recruiters and institutions of higher education may have requested and received student information. Please contact the school principal or a guidance counselor if you need further information.
