

AES Principal Report

10-25-21

Submitted by: Joy Redmann in collaboration with Tianna Borchardt

Student Learning

- B.e.s.t. Social-Emotional Screening Window: October 27 - November 10
- Parent/Teacher Conferences - We had significant attendance in-person and by phone
- Middle School Band and Choir performance at the Elementary School
- United Field Trips with Maple Grove -4th grade trip to Pittsville's Cranberry Bog and 5th grade to the Highground in Neillsville
- Upcoming Opera for the Young performance on October 28 - Mr. and Mrs. Triebold will be sharing opera experiences

Community Connections

- Jean-erous Donation to the Bloch family benefit
- Fire Safety -Thank you to Mike Thurs and the fire department for their fire safety education
- AES Book Fair sponsored by the YES group
- YES Fall Fun Activity took place on October 17 at 3:00-6:00 p.m. at Erbach Park. It was a beautiful day and a terrific turn out! Thank you to FCCLA and Mrs. Nievenski for the delicious caramel apples!
- Upcoming YES group meeting on November 9 at 6:00 p.m.
- Upcoming Veterans Day assembly at AES November 11

Communication

- Digital Technology Tickets
- Spanish interpreter was present for all EL conferences

Workforce Development

- EE Pilot Update (Kira) / Bias-Busting
- Calming Corner Training at 3:30 in the library
- Targeting Instruction and Learning for Superkids Success webinar (Cindy, Stacy, Renee, Mary, Carla, Joy)
- Title Reading Staff have been attending CESA's Reading Workshops
- AES paras have been attending CESA's Reading Support Trainings
- Impactful Coaching (Joy)
- Upcoming Staff Development on October 29

Facility Maintenance

- Norton and Jamey put the new Bluejay sticker on the sign in front. Thank you!

AES in Action!

