

"Without continual growth and progress, such words as improvement, achievement, and success have no meaning."
-Benjamin Franklin

Leveraging ESSA for Authentic School Improvement Planning

Transform Your School in Just Two Days

Tired of writing a SIP that no one reads?
Looking for information about ESSA and how you can make sure you are prepared?

Join EdgED Consulting as they walk participants through their data-driven, research-based proven strategies. Use your own data and leave with a high-quality school improvement plan.

Participants will use EdgED's implementation planning document to build their personal improvement plan that ensures success for all students.

The intended audience for this boot camp is school and district planning teams including teachers, coaches, counselors, administrators and central office staff.
