

Everything you want to know about STAAR™

75%

RLA, MATH, SCIENCE, & SOCIAL STUDIES

House Bill 3906 (86th Texas Legislature, 2019) requires that no more than 75% of STAAR be presented in a multiple-choice form.

This requirement will take effect on all STAAR tests beginning with the Spring 2023 administration.

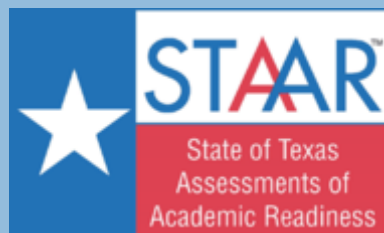

To find links to examples & descriptions of different item types that are currently under consideration for future STAAR exams, click the link below.

Find Out More

READING LANGUAGE ARTS

Find documents and resources for grades 3-8 reading assessments. See Curricula, sample writing items, and grade-specific reading blueprints. You'll also find RLA revising and editing items through the link below.

Find Out More

Designed for teachers of grades 3-12 STAAR subjects, this quick guide is filled with resources, links, and relevant information for all things related to STAAR.

You'll find examples and breakdowns of new legislative requirements, question types, and links to resources for teachers, students, and families.

Click the "Find Out More" buttons to dive deeper into the source material. Check this sheet first to find what you're looking for!

The TEA Texas Assessment website is a great STAAR resource for Students and Families, Testing Personnel, and Educators.

Texas Education Agency | Texas Assessment

You can also view the released STAAR tests from 2021 and find practice tests for both print and online.

Released STAAR Tests | Practice STAAR Tests

Still have questions?

Reach out to the Office of Curriculum & Instruction for more information.

Want to know more about all the new question types coming in your subject area?

Lead4ward has updated its test accessibility cheat sheets for 21-22, which helps content teachers know which accommodations are allowable on their STAAR tests.

CLICK HERE or click on the image to review the "Test Accessibility" tab.

Content Builder Resources | Data Tools | Accountability | Performance Standards | Test Accessibility | Instructional Tools | Learning Videos

2021-22 School Year (updated November 11, 2021)

2021-22 School Year

- Test Accessibility and Technology Guidelines – 2021-22 School Year (REV 11/11/2021)
This quicklook summarizes information relating to the use of Accessibility Features and Designated Supports as well as Technology Guidelines for state assessments administered in the 2021-22 school year
- Accessibility Features – 2021-22 School Year (REV 11/11/2021)
This quicklook summarizes information relating to Accessibility Features for state assessments administered in the 2021-22 school year. The document is posted in Word version to allow users to utilize the resource by documenting the names of students who regularly benefit from the use of these procedures and materials during instruction.
- Summary of Designated Supports – 2021-22 School Year (REV 11/11/2021)
For each Designated Support, this quicklook identifies the testing programs for which that Designated Support is applicable as well as the committees (ARD, 504, RTI or Student Assistance Team, LPAC) that are authorized to make decisions regarding that Designated Support
- Summary of Designated Supports – 2021-22 School Year (Coming Soon!)
For each Designated Support, this quicklook identifies the testing programs for which that Designated Support is applicable as well as the committees (ARD, 504, RTI or Student Assistance Team, LPAC) that are authorized to make decisions regarding that Designated Support
- Designated Supports That May Be Locally Approved – 2021-22 School Year (Coming Soon!)
This quicklook summarizes the requirements relating to the use of locally-approved Designated Supports on state assessments administered in the 2020-21 school year
- Designated Supports Requiring TEA Approval – 2021-22 School Year (Coming Soon!)
This quicklook summarizes the requirements relating to the use of Designated Supports requiring TEA approval on state assessments administered in the 2021-22 school year
- Allowable Supplemental Aids – 2021-22 School Year (Coming Soon!)
This quicklook summarizes examples of allowable and non-allowable supplemental aids for state assessments administered in the 2021-22 school year.

This is a great resource for teachers with students who have difficulty accessing the materials and/or content.

Not only does Accommodation Central help you to understand STAAR accommodations, but it can also be a resource when figuring out which accommodations would work for your specific students.

Find Out More

