Bob Parsons, supporting the D M & E railroad bypass, discussed with the Board the traffic, noise level and danger to students if the railroad bypass is not constructed around the Pierre and Fort Pierre area. It was requested of the Board to authorize the use of students to circulate petitions in support of the bypass. The Board authorized either Bob Parsons or his representative to visit with students and to use student volunteers to acquire signatures on the petitions and to allow the petitions to be placed in the lobby of the Parkview building during activities.

John Moisan, representing the Stanley County Parents Organization, reported the organization is sponsoring an informal meeting called “Alcohol, Drugs, n’ Kids” for parents and students. The program will include the attorney general, local law enforcement personnel, counselors and Nicole Burger from the Turning Point. The meeting will be January 16 at 7 P.M. in the Parkview Gymnasium. The Board requested a continuation of drug and alcohol programs in the future.

Principal Denise Gebur reported the elementary school’s calendar of events for the next thirty days. The second quarter will end on January 10, report cards will be sent home on January 16, the technology committee will meet on January 18, a special education compliance review will be conducted on January 23 through 25, early childhood screening will be February 6, early dismissal will be February 7 for staff development, the rural sing along has been rescheduled for February 12 at the Hayes school and the DARE graduation will be February 8 in the Parkview gym. The increased enrollment at the Cheyenne school was discussed and a teacher assistant was requested for the continuation of the school year. The Board authorized the position. The results of the writing assessment test were discussed.

Principal Tony Glass reported the results of the ninth grade-writing test conducted recently. A survey of state schools was conducted to compare the drug and alcohol policies. The strengthening of the drug and alcohol policy was discussed. The Stanley County High School will host Joel Schwader, the Common Man’s Poet, for grades 6 – 12. The first semester will end on January 10. The new junior class open campus has not been a problem and it was recommended to continue.

Brown moved, seconded by Bucholz, to continue the junior class open campus for the continuation of the school year. All voted aye.

Johnson moved, seconded by Bucholz, to approve the public school exemption as presented. All voted aye.

Brown moved, seconded by Bucholz, to approve the open enrollment application as presented. All voted aye.
